

and the bills titles said. of the al. a. nstant and chical ad- l Revenue of taking e his deci- involving

as set by Earle N.

al W. Wil- mmissioner investigating Barfall; his , Theresa, Barfall's fa- years 1946 final tax as- $68,000. obbins ap- representing e $3,000 and obbins asked the same id. Authori- and plans p. in addition arrested, as could be three years ree times ed bribe. by the In- vice since of $9,400 a e and two

CANDOR
(P) — The nation says e supposed om the en- litary mis- Harry P. inspection ast night: est policy mistakes d give the nation of news is ow. We'd out first ack in a

FUGITIVE PATIENT SOUGHT
Philadelphia, Apr. 2 (P) — Police today continue the search for three of seven tuberculosis patients who escaped from the Episcopal Hospital. Three were recaptured yesterday, and the other had been located Monday.

cussed reaction abroad to American aid. Consensus is that it should consist more of economic rather than military aid in order to help the underdeveloped countries get back on their feet, he said. Others participating in the Washington, Apr. 2 (P) — Washington's famed cherry blossoms, which didn't make it in time for last week's cherry blossom festival, won't be around for Easter either. Capital horticulturists say full blooms aren't expected for at least 10 more days.

attacked Clement's testimony, and read word for word Clement's signed statement made after his arrest last year. Skahen received denials when he asked if Clement had been fired from a job in New Jersey, whether he drank or smoked, or if he went out with other women.

The Hewitt police chief said yesterday that he has known Clement for 25 years, and termed his reputation good. Another character witness, a Hewitt restaurant owner, said that he knew Clement's reputation as being the best.

CROSSPIECE PUT IN PLACE AT ST. LUKE'S

The crosspiece of the cross in the new St. Luke's Episcopal Church is put in place in preparation for the first service in the Haworth church on Easter Sunday. Putting the crosspiece in place are Charles Walden, Edgar Anderson, and Donald Edson. Anderson and his wife Joyce designed and carved the cross and other chancery objects for the church. Walden and Edson are members of the parish. The new church, off Massachusetts Avenue, will be dedicated later this month.

VANDALS RANSACK HOUSE

West Orange, Apr. 2 (P) — Vandals Monday ransacked the first floor of an unoccupied Llewellyn Park house owned by Christopher J. Devine, part owner of the famed racing horse Nashua. Police said Devine, who lives in another section of Llewellyn Park, was unable to estimate the damage or what, if anything, was missing. Devine bought the house at Mountain Avenue and Rocky Way 6 years ago but never moved in, police said.

Readers Can Call Without Toll

Toll-free telephone service in calling the Bergen Evening Record is available to nearly all this newspaper's readers.

The Central Bergen Hackensack area is served by 17 trunk lines by dialing HUbhard 7-8000.

Northern Valley readers can reach the Record without toll by dialing DUmont 4-8482.

From the Pascack Valley, Ridgewood and West Bergen call GILbert 4-0800 or GILbert 4-0801.

Direct telephone service is available without toll from New York by dialing WISconsin 7-9335.

4/2/58

Bergen Evening Record