

Amazing Grace

*Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now am found
Was blind but now I see*

*Was Grace that taught my heart to fear
And Grace, my fears relieved
How precious did that Grace appear
The hour I first believed*

*Through many dangers, toils and snares
We have already come
T'was Grace that brought us safe thus far
And Grace will lead us home*

A Life Well Lived

Mr. Fred Miller Lash was born on July 3, 1927 in Forsyth County, North Carolina to the late James and Cora Miller Lash. He attended Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools. Employed as a fork lift operator at Hanes Dye and Finishing, he retired after 40 years of service to the company. As a loving and proud father, he found great joy in spending time with his children and grandchildren.

On Thursday, May 25, 2023, after having lived a full life, he passed away at his residence. In addition to his parents, Mr. Lash was preceded in death by his wife of 62 years, Lizzie Mae Wright Lash; his grandson, Kenneth William Wright, Jr.; sisters: Mary Lash, Savannah Lash, Kathryn Mitchell, Gloria Butler and Frances Lash; brothers: James "Ed" Lash, Jr. and Robert Lash.

Those family members who will mourn his loss but cherish his legacy include: his devoted daughter and caregiver, Vanessa Lash Conrad (Junior Scales); sons: Kenneth William (Vernessa) Wright, Sr., Michael Lash, Fredrick (Jackie) Lash, Wayne Lash and James Lash; 13 grandchildren; 32 great grandchildren and 7 great-great grandchildren; several extended family members and many friends.

His Smile

*Though his smile is gone forever and his hand we cannot touch
We still have so many memories of the one we loved so much.
His memory is now our keepsake which with we'll never part.
God has him in his keeping, we have him in our hearts.
Sadly missed, but never forgotten.*
