PATSY CLINE AT TWINING VALLEY

Patsy Cline was a gifted, passionate queen of the Nashville sound in the late 1950's to the early 1960's. She was a velvet voiced country music singer who died in a tragic plane crash at the height of her fame at the young age of 30. Diane Olson from Monroe, WI states "Patsy facts" throughout her performance, which are facts about Patsy's life and what were turning points in her career and how she became a legend in country music.

Diane's performance concludes with the final song, "Just A Closer Walk with Thee,"

As she sings her "Tribute to the Legendary Miss Patsy Cline."

~ SOMETHING TO LIVE BY ~

A haze on the far Horizon,

The infinite tender sky,

The ripe rich tint of the cornfield,

And the wild geese sailing high,

And all over upland and lowland.

The charm of the Golden –Rod-

Some of us call it Autumn

And others call it God.
