Dear Friends and Family,

Greetings in the name of our Blessed Lord, Jesus Christ! Fall has certainly come, and we have enjoyed the last two months being in North Carolina, Michigan, Ohio, and Alaska! We celebrated our fourth anniversary on October 6! We were able to spend it in a Missions Conference in Homer, Alaska. To celebrate, we went out to dinner on the Homer Spit and even got to see a whale! The church also took us on for support - what neat anniversary gifts from the Lord! This now brings our support percentage to 70%!

We have been able to have some interesting and great soul-winning opportunities these last two months, especially in Alaska! One sad experience in Homer left a deep impression. In the excitement of leaving for Alaska, we had mistakenly left our New Testaments in our van, so we were out soul-winning with our regular Bibles. We went to the door of a house and knocked. We had our Bibles before us and I think the young man saw them and as he came to the door, he locked it and left. There was a window on the door, so we watched him. We looked at each other in surprise and were about to put a tract in the door anyway, when he returned with a lead pipe in his hand. He started slapping it into his other palm and then through the window began threatening us to leave. Jennifer became a little nervous when she saw that, and in my mind I thought "Really? A lead pipe? Wow." I wasn't afraid of him and so I said that I was leaving an invitation for him on his door and calmly walked away. I couldn't help but shake my head in disbelief, and my heart was really grieved at his decision. I'm afraid of what God may do in his life to show Himself to this young man...but most of all, if he never trusts Christ and dies, I believe he will be shown his actions and remember them for all of eternity, knowing he had an opportunity to hear the Gospel and trust Jesus Christ as his Savior.

Jennifer is now back to full health, praise the Lord! She has not had any pain issues for the last two months. We both know it is due to God answering the prayers of many people. Thank you so very much!!

Please continue to pray for traveling mercies the rest of this year. So far we will be in Kentucky, New York, and Michigan. We would appreciate prayer for more meetings this spring as we prepare to leave for Ireland and for our support to get to 100%. We are praying to leave in April. Thank you to those who sent cards, emails, and notes on our birthday and anniversary. Thank you for your faithful prayers and support! We appreciate the love and sacrifice you bestow to the Lord on our behalf and never take it lightly. We hope and pray that you are able to truly enjoy the upcoming holiday seasons! We love you all!
