

A HEART OF GOLD

A heart of gold stopped beating
Two shining eyes at rest
God had to prove to us
He only takes the best
And so, you had to leave
But you did go alone
For part of us went with you
The day He took you home
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know

OBITUARY

Eugene Wolfe, Jr., affectionately known as “Sandy,” was born on May 26, 1963 to Eugene Wolfe and Gwendolyn Wolfe, who preceded him in death. After a brief illness, he passed away on March 18, 2023.

“Sandy” earned his High School Diploma for Attendance from Diggs School for Special Needs Students. He also attended and worked previously at Forsyth Industrial Systems. In recent years, “Sandy” attended the Friendly People That Care Day Center. “Sandy” was a bright light for everyone who knew and loved him.

He loved to talk to everyone about his love for wrestling (WWE), his favorite wrestler, Ric Flair, the Hulk, the Carolina Panthers, and going to eat at Hooters. His “pal” Dino was never far from his side.

Left to cherish his memory are: a devoted and loving aunt, Sarah (Frank) Brown; a host of loving and supportive cousins; his caretaker, Marcia Henry; and his housemates Jade Mims and Kate Linder.

Special thanks go to the Friendly People That Care Group and Day Program who provided him with a home and friends during the last years of his life.
