A test of the emergency policy will be done annually to ensure the effectiveness of the plan.

- The complaint shall be prepared in writing or in an incident report and directed to the Title IX Coordinator or his/her delegate. The Title IX Coordinator is Louis Robb, CEO/Owner. The Title IX Coordinator oversees and supports the school’s enforcement of the Institutional Security & Crime Policy.

This institution does allow voluntary confidential reporting. The school can file a report on the details of an incident without revealing the identity of the complainant. The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with the wishes of the complainant to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to ensure the future safety of the individual and others. With such information, the school can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students; determine where there is a pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, method, or assailant, and alert the students to potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crimes’ statistics for the institution.

Timely Warning – Any circumstance that requires us to notify students and staff of an incident that they must be made aware of will be handled in person to all staff who in turn will address it to their students during class or in person on the clinic floor as soon as possible.

Disclosure of Crime Statistics – This Institution prepares this annual report to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. This report is prepared in cooperation with the local law enforcement agencies surrounding our school. Campus crime, arrest and referral statistics include those reported to the Gary Police Department and School Administration.

The training:

- Defines what behavior and actions constitute consent to sexual activity in Indiana.
- Provides safe and positive options for bystander intervention that may be carried out by an individual to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against a person other than the bystander. For instance, in a situation involving sexual assault, dating violence, or stalking, a bystander should minimize risk and:
 - Approach everyone as a friend.
 - Not be antagonistic.
 - Avoid Violence
 - Be honest and direct whenever possible.
 - Recruit help, if possible

 - If things get out of hand, contact the police.

POLICY STATEMENT ADDRESSING CAMPUS SEXUAL ASSAULT

Lil Lou’s Beauty and Barber College provides ongoing educational information and programs regarding sexual assault and prevention of sexual assault. This information is introduced during new student orientation and followed with speaker presentations during the year to discuss topics like safety, sexual assault prevention, and rape assistance and awareness. Literature on rape education and risk reduction is available upon request.

If you are a victim of a sexual assault at this institution, your priority should be to get to a place of safety. You should then obtain necessary medical treatment. It is crucial for victims of sexual assault to report the incident in a timely manner. Time is a critical factor for evidence collection and preservation. An assault should be reported directly to a school official (Manager, Administrator, or Instructor). Filing a report with a school official will not obligate the victim to prosecute, nor will it subject the victim to scrutiny or judgmental opinions from school officials. Filing a report will:

- Ensure that a victim of sexual assault receives the necessary medical treatment and tests at no expense to the victim.
- Provide the opportunity for collection of evidence helpful in prosecution, which cannot be obtained later (ideally a victim of sexual assault should not wash, douche, use the toilet, or change clothing prior to a medical/legal exam).
- Assure the victim has access to free confidential counseling from counselors specifically trained in the area of sexual assault crisis intervention.

Reporting a Sexual Assault

When a sexual assault victim reports the assault to a school official, the Gary police Sex crime unit will be notified as well at 219-881-1211 or 219-881-1218. The victim may choose for the investigation to be pursued through the criminal justice system. If the victim chooses, he/she may be assisted by administration in reporting the assault to the proper law enforcement authorities. After making the report, the victim is not obligated to continue with legal or school disciplinary action.

Victim Rights

A person who reports having been sexually assaulted has the right to:

1. Request a female or male officer to take the report of the event.
2. Request to have his/her identity protected, consistent with legal requirements.
3. Be treated professionally and with sensitivity, regardless of the student's race, ethnicity, religion, gender, or sexual orientation of the victim or perpetrator.

Campus Disciplinary Action Cases of alleged sex Offenses regarding rape, acquaintance rape or other forcible or non-forcible sex offenses.

Upon learning of possible sexual violence involving a student, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the incident to law enforcement, Lil Lou's Beauty and Barber College will take immediate action to investigate or otherwise determine what happened. Such action may include, but is not limited to, speaking with the alleged victim, the alleged perpetrator, and other potential witnesses as appropriate and reviewing other evidence if available.

The alleged victim and alleged perpetrator will each be interviewed separately, and each will be allowed to have another individual who has had no formal legal training to accompany them during disciplinary proceedings. However, the other individual who accompanies the victim or perpetrator may not advocate during the interview. Both parties will be able to provide evidence and suggest other witnesses to be interviewed. The investigator will interview other relevant witnesses and review any other available relevant evidence. Both the alleged victim and alleged perpetrator must be informed in writing of the outcome of any institutional disciplinary proceeding that is brought alleging a sex offense. For this paragraph, the outcome of a disciplinary proceeding means only the institution's final determination with respect to the alleged sex offense and any sanctions that is imposed against the alleged perpetrator. Sanctions which may be imposed following a final determination may include but are not limited to alteration of class schedules, training, disciplinary probation, loss of privileges, suspension, or expulsion in the case of students, or coaching, training, written warnings, demotion, or termination in the case of employees. Suspension or expulsion are the standard recommended sanctions if a student is found guilty of an incident of sexual assault or other acts of violence. Suspension or termination are the standard recommended sanctions if an employee is found guilty of an incident of sexual assault or other acts of violence. These procedures will be followed regardless of where the alleged sex offense occurred (i.e. on or off campus).

The Title IX Coordinator will weigh the evidence presented and decide whether additional evidence is necessary for consideration. The Title IX Coordinator will determine whether it is more likely than not that a violation occurred. The standard of evidence that will be used is preponderance of the evidence. This is a burden of proof in which it is determined to be more likely than not, or at least 51% certain, that the violation has in fact occurred.

The institution reserves the right to convene a Determination Panel to review the evidence and make the determination in appropriate circumstances.

Pending a final determination, the Title IX Coordinator or designee will take appropriate interim measures. These measures may include, but are not limited to, the imposition of a no-contact order and/or employment, transportation, residence, and academic modifications. The Title IX coordinator or designee may limit a student or employee's access to certain school facilities or activities pending resolution of the matter. The Title IX Coordinator may impose an Interim Suspension on the alleged and perpetrator pending the resolution of an alleged violation when the Title IX Coordinator determines, at their sole discretion, that it is necessary in order to protect the safety and well-being of members of the Institution's community.

The Title IX Coordinator and all investigators will receive annual training related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking as well as how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability.

Students who violate any federal, state or local laws are subject to criminal charges. In addition to any criminal remedies that are available, an alleged or arbitrated perpetrator who is a student of Lil Lou's Beauty and Barber College may be subject to penalties or sanctions from the school.

Appeal Procedures

If the accuser or the accused is a student, he or she may appeal the outcome determination by written appeal to the Title IX Coordinator within 15 days of notification of the outcome. There are no appeal rights for accused employees. An appeal may be made based on only one or more of the following reasons:

- New and significant evidence appeared that could not have been discovered by a properly diligent accused student or accuser before or during the original investigation and that could have changed the outcome.
- The finding is Arbitrary and Capricious: Reading all evidence in favor of the non-appealing party, the finding was not supported by reasonable grounds or adequate consideration of the circumstances. In deciding appeals, the Title IX Coordinator is allowed to make logical inferences in benefit the non-appealing party.

- Disproportionate Sanctions: The sanctions were disproportionate to the findings.

The appeal shall consist of a written statement requesting review of the conduct decision or sanction and explaining in detail the basis for the appeal. The Title IX Coordinator or, designated representative, will notify the non-appealing party of the request for an appeal. Within five working days of receipt of the notice, the non-appealing party may submit a written statement to be included in the case file. The appeal may proceed without the non-appealing party's written statement if it is not submitted within the designated time limit. The Title IX Coordinator will endeavor to make a determination of the appeal within 15 days of receipt. The Title IX's decision is final.

Information on Registered Sex Offenders

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act (CSCPA) of 2000 is a federal law that provides tracking of convicted sex offenders enrolled at, or employed at, institutions of higher education. The CSCPA is an amendment to the Jacob Wetterling Crimes Against Children and Sexually Violent Offender Act. The law requires sex offenders to register With local enforcement agencies and to indicate if they are either enrolled or employed at an institution of higher education. Lil Lou's Beauty and Barber College is required to inform the campus community of sex offender websites and have them available for students and staff. Students and staff should refer to the National Sex Offender Registry at www.offendexdata.com and /or www.city-data.com/so/Indiana.html. The CSCPA further amends the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) to clarify that nothing in the Act can prohibit an educational institution from disclosing information provided to the institution concerning registered sex offenders. This statement is provided in compliance with the Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2000.
