THE MASTER CALLED

I'm sorry I had to leave you;
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see the Master called me
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We thank you for the love shown to our family since the homegoing of a beloved son, brother, and uncle.
We will forever cherish your thoughtfulness.

OBITUARY

James Everette Morris, affectionately called “Jimmy” by family and friends, was born to the late Everett E. Price and the late Willie B Morris in Roanoke, Virginia on July 14, 1952.

James was educated in the public schools of Roanoke/Halifax and Winston-Salem/Forsyth Counties. He graduated from Atkins High School in June, 1970. After graduation, he moved to Ypsilanti, Michigan and attended Washtenaw Community College where he studied architecture.

Employed at UMI, formerly Xerox in Ann Arbor, Michigan, he later relocated to Jonesboro, Georgia and retired from the company after 30 years of service.

At an early age, James confessed Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and Savior and joined Maple Street Baptist Church in Roanoke. The family moved to Winston-Salem where he joined Mars Hill Baptist Church. He was a very active member of the usher and missionary boards, youth choir and Baptist Training Union.

James was a devoted brother and uncle. He loved his family and cherished his big brother, George and nieces, Carmen Carter and Lauren Morris. He enjoyed life and influenced everyone he encountered. James was deeply loved and will be sorely missed.

In addition to his parents, James was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, James and Aleane Leake; maternal grandparents, James and Alberta Liles; uncles: Fred Morris, John Morris, and Jake Morris; aunts: Lucille Evans, Alberta Izzard, Jenny Green, Esther Reeder; sister, Shirley Carter; nephews: Milton Morris, Darius Morris, Anthony Morris and Charles Samuel; niece, Crystal Morris and a host of cousins.

Those family members who survive and will forever cherish loving memories of Jimmy include three brothers: George (Lewellyn) Morris, Jefferson (Sally) Morris and Jasper (Ann) Horton; four sisters: Betty Morris, Aleane (Reginald) Bohannon, Linda Morris and Maxine Harrison; a host of loving nephews, nieces, cousins, extended family members and friends.
