IBTA Releases New Course in Accounting and Budgeting

Cedar Park, TX, April 30, 2022 – The International Business Training Association (IBTA), sponsor of the Certified Business Professional (CBP) certification, has released its newest course - Accounting and Budgeting.

IBTA is committed to equipping its training partners with the most recent and reliable information as part of the CBP certification courses. This commitment to continual improvement displays IBTA's desire to educate and equip professionals around the world with the industry knowledge and practical skills necessary to thrive in the ever-changing global economy.

The Accounting and Budgeting course equips the business professional with the knowledge and skills necessary to successfully maximize a business's financial management. This course includes an overview of effective accounting practice, account management, bookkeeping, and budgeting methods. The course also offers a guide for understanding key financial terms, establishing a comprehensive financial reporting plan, operating accounts payable and accounts receivable, and separating managerial and financial accounting.

President of IBTA, Kirby Narine, said, "We at IBTA want to ensure that all of our Training Partners and students around the world are equipped with the most updated and relevant information for accounting and budgeting. The CBP Accounting and Budgeting course is in keeping with our commitment to educate and empower business professionals globally with the skills and resources necessary to excel in their chosen industries. This course will be a crucial resource for emerging and seasoned business professionals around the world.” The Accounting and Budgeting certification course is now available to all of IBTA’s Authorized Training Partners.

The Accounting and Budgeting course is recommended for all finance professionals, accountants, bookkeepers, and business owners. It is intended to provide a concise overview of accounting policies and practices in order to equip professionals with the skills and experience necessary to effectively manage business finances and accounts.

IBTA offers the opportunity to become an Authorized Training Partner (ATP) for the CBP certification. ATPs receive IBTA support in the form of referrals, support, industry news, and instructor program support. Visit cbpcertify.com to learn more about becoming an ATP.
