YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW

*Yesterday I felt okay I smiled when I thought of you.
I remembered happy times and the funny things you'd do.
But today I feel so very sad I think of you and cry.
I'm missing you so very much and still asking God "why?"
I don't know what will happen when I face another day.
What will tomorrow bring? Will I cry or be okay?
This roller coaster of emotions is the worst ride of my life.
Nothing can prepare you for the never ending strife.
I may not handle my emotions the way that I should do.
But I still thank the Lord for the time I had with you.*

Our Sincere Gratitude

Our hearts are made glad in the midst of our sorrow by the outpouring of love and concern for us.

*We praise God for the way that you have demonstrated the love of Christ through your prayers, words of comfort and genuine acts of friendship and kindness.
And when the winter of our sorrow is gone and the flowers of loving memories spring up, we will remember you!*

Man's Story...

*The years of his life were numbered, When the messenger whispered low,
"The Master has come and called for thee," He answered: "I am ready to go."*

Mr. Delander Witherspoon Thompson, 51, affectionately called "Man," departed this life unexpectedly on Sunday, May 1, 2022 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina..

He was born to Carrie L. Thompson and the late Delander W. Simmons in Winston-Salem on June 16, 1970.

Man was educated in the public schools of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County and graduated from Mount Tabor Senior High School.

His varied work experience included positions with the City of Winston-Salem (Streets Division), Tijuana Flats Tacos and Kentucky Fried Chicken. Man was an avid cook and many enjoyed the pleasure of eating his good meals. He enjoyed sports and he loved to joke around.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Willie and Frances Thompson and his paternal grandparents, Benjamin and Virginia Simmons.

Those family members who will forever cherish fond memories of "Man" include his two daughters, Saqoya Thompson and DuPre' Banner; his grandson Noah Thompson; his devoted mother, Carrie L. Thompson; sister, Latricia Evette Thompson; brothers, Timothy L. Thompson and Delander R. Simmons; dear friend for more than thirty years, Flavella Jones and her grandchildren, Z'Rhyia Jones, Nauj'e Jones, Kaelani Jones and Emeri Jones; several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins. and friends.
