“Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, ‘The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.’” -Matthew 9:35-39 (NRSV)

“To share the story of Jesus and invite all people into it.”

The weather is cooling, the leaves are just starting to change color and the bounty of the fields is beginning to roll in. Our agricultural loved-ones are hard at work reaping what they have sown earlier in the year, while we all benefit from their labors.

That’s kind of what it’s like when we think about the blessings of being part of a community-of-faith. In 1st Corinthians 3, Paul writes the following: “I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labor of each. For we are God’s servants, working together; you are God’s field, God’s building.”

Our common purpose as members of RUCC is rooted in the Core Values, Mission and Vision statements we have adopted. And, of course, as quoted at the beginning of this article, the third point in our Mission statement is that we are to share our faith (“disciples making disciples” as the Core Values statement puts it). Everyone of us who is fortunate enough to know about Jesus Christ, call him “Lord”, and enjoy the gifts of the church-family is so because someone else first introduced us to the faith. Some were parents and grandparents who have “gone home to glory”, and others were/are friends who still nourish our spirits and relationships with GOD to this day. Regardless, there really isn’t a way to “pay them back”, but we most certainly can (and should) “pay it forward”. This isn’t just an ethical stance, it is also a practical need –for the life and future of Christianity and our congregation.

However (before anyone feels overwhelmed or incapable of practicing evangelism “the right way”), I’d encourage you to reflect on this famous quote from Oswald Chambers: “When our Lord said to the disciples, ‘Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men’, His reference was not to the skilled angler, but to those who use the drag-net--something which requires practically no skill; the point being that you do not have to watch your ‘fish,’ but you have to do the simple thing and God will do the rest.” In this same vein, I’m very fond of how our Consistory phrased the call to proclaim our faith and fulfill The Great Commission: SHARE and INVITE. How much simpler could it be?

People love and need stories. We have the most important one in the world to tell. Folks are longing for meaning, purpose, and connection (but don’t want to be forced into anything). We don’t have to harangue, cajole, or bully; we need only extend an offer.

So, I invite everyone of us to invite someone else to enjoy the rich harvest of GOD’s Goodness in Christ –a crop yielded for us, not by our own hands, but through the efforts of those who went before us. And if we all continue sharing the gifts and testimonies of our own faith journeys, then the next generation will keep reaping and sowing (just as The Church has been doing for 2,000 plus years).

All Peace, Love & Blessings;
Your brother & servant in Christ-Jesus,

-w-

A MESSAGE FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF YOUTH AND FAMILY MINISTRIES

As we approach the month of October, we are hit almost immediately with one of our biggest Fall events! Yep, you're correct! The Kid's Carnival! This event is planned for October 5th, from 2-4 PM, preceding our traditional Fall Festival.

Speaking of traditional, we will have the dunk tank again to submerge the Pastor (or whomever wishes to go swimming) and HUGE bounce house. There will be various carnival stations staffed with volunteers as well as a prize table set up for the winners at each station. It will have a nice Fall Harvest décor throughout; like pumpkins, hay bales, haystacks, and some balloons and other festive decorations as a final touch to celebrate the season! This event is a great outreach opportunity that CE has provided for our community as we share God's love and our resources.

Since tradition has developed a thread-line in this newsletter article, I did want to mention that our Trunk or Treat event that CE normally sponsors this month was rerouted into something different this year. That's why our past September Maize Valley event was offered for the whole family. We were looking for something different, fresh, and with a new cutting-edge feature. It was difficult and nearly impossible to have a tractor pull and corn mazes on our green space, so we decided to outsource it at another location 😊 Just a piece of information why you may ask why Trunk or Treat wasn't on the calendar this year.

The October calendar continues with the (yes, you guessed it) "traditional" offerings for our youth and families at all age levels -from our youngest little COG members to our Jr High and Senior High (RISE) youth groups. Oh, speaking of RISE, when we had our recent gathering, we are now planning a service project to visit and minister to one of our local parishioners who lives in a resident facility. These youngsters are balls-of-energy and want to serve kinetically.

Nevertheless, as I reflect on our youth and families, I try to engage them in various outlets that may fit their gifts and abilities. I offer continued, personal outreach to these families and enjoy getting involved in their lives!

If you ever get on the church's Facebook page, look me up there too! Every week I have an entry called, "The Director's Chair". If you have that electronic capability, stop by and check me out sometime 😊

In Christ's Continued Love and Service, Gary Bickel (Director of Youth & Family Ministries)

Recycling at RICHVILLE UCC

Container #110 was picked up in early August (weight: 4,480 lbs.), and Container #111 was picked up at the end of August (weight: 4,140 lbs.). To date, RUCC has saved 625,820 lbs. (312.91 tons) of cardboard, newspaper and junk mail from ending up in the landfill. Great job everyone! THANK YOU for your support of this important outreach!

THANK YOU

I would like to thank everyone at Richville UCC for the very nice cards and gifts I received in recognition of my one-year anniversary as your organist. I felt very blessed and encouraged by your kindness. As always, I appreciate your support and encouragement. Here's to a great 2019-2020 church year at Richville UCC!

Mike Calabris

Many thanks to our Finance & Stewardship Committee, speakers (Attorney David J. Simmons, Adam Dettweiler [Reed Funeral Home, Preplanning Representative], Debbie Ciesielczyk and Pastor Will Stuart), and all attendees of our second End-of-Life Planning Seminar on August 31.

The families from the Family Living Center would like to thank everyone for the donations of pillows, blankets, sheets, etc., and also for the dinner we provide them each month. They are extremely grateful and blessed for all they have received!

We would also like to thank everyone who has donated items to Chapel Hill. The residents enjoy and appreciate all that has come in!

On Sunday, October 6, in conjunction with World Communion
Sunday, we will be taking a special missions offering for Neighbors in Need.

Neighbors in Need (NIN) is a special mission offering of the United Church of Christ that supports ministries of justice and compassion throughout the United States. One-third of NIN funds support the Council for American Indian Ministry (CAIM). Two-thirds of this offering is used by the UCC's Justice and Witness Ministries (JWM) to support a variety of justice initiatives, advocacy efforts, and direct service projects through grants. Neighbors in Need grants are awarded to UCC churches and organizations doing justice work in their communities. These grants fund projects whose work ranges from direct service to community organizing and advocacy to address systemic injustice. This year, special consideration will be given to projects focusing on serving our immigrant neighbors and communities.

Offering envelopes will be placed in the bulletin. You can also make a donation online at any time by visiting <http://www.ucc.org/nin/>

SEPTEMBER GAS CARD WINNER

The September gas card drawing will be held on Sunday, September 29. We will announce the lucky winner and card donor in the November newsletter. God bless and stay safe on the roads!

GENERAL FUND AVAILABLE BALANCE

FINANCE AND STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

As you can see from the above graph, our available balance in our general fund account continues to decrease. As of the end of August we are down to a balance in general fund of $15,345.77. The Finance and Stewardship Committee certainly appreciates all of our faithful givers, but each month we continue to use more of our funds to pay the bills. Fundraising helps to supplement our revenue, but this is only a temporary fix to the problem. The Finance Committee has asked all of our committees to take a serious look at cutting their expenses, including reducing hours for salaried positions. We will continue to strive to present a budget that we can maintain in the future and yet still serve our Core Values, Mission and Vision Statements. We are always open to congregational feedback and appreciate any and all your ideas.
