

Psalm 23

A Psalm of David

THE LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
For his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
For thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of THE LORD for ever.

Sincere Gratitude

Our hearts are made glad in the midst of our sorrow by the outpouring of love and concern for us.

We praise God for the way that you have demonstrated the love of Christ through your prayers, words of comfort and genuine acts of friendship and kindness.

*And when the winter of our sorrow is gone
And the flowers of loving memories spring up,
We will remember you.*

Trinna, “Beloved!”

The years of her life were numbered, When the messenger whispered low, "The Master has come and called for thee," She answered: "I am ready to go."

Trinna Lynn Blackmon was born to the late Shirley Ann Blackmon Winchester in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on August 23, 1963.

She was educated in the public schools of Winston-Salem/ Forsyth County and graduated from Parkland High School. She attended Winston-Salem State University for a brief period.

Trinna was a machine operator at ITW Texwipe for more than twenty years. She then made a career change and began to work at Bekaert Deslee, until declining health forced her into retirement.

She loved the Lord and was a faithful member of Galilee Missionary Baptist Church. She was a devoted member of the Health Ministry Team of the church, but her active participation ended when her health began to fail.

Ms. Trinna Lynn Blackmon accepted the Lord's invitation to “be with Him in paradise” on Wednesday, April 6, 2022, at Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center, following a period of illness. In addition to her mother, she was preceded in death by her stepfather, Charles Winchester; her aunt, Essie Blackmon; and her uncle, Marvin Blackmon.

The unspeakable joy that awaits the beloved sister, sister/cousin, aunt and friend in heaven is the hope and promise of those who look forward to a reunion with her in eternity. Included in that number is her sister, Deborah Blackmon; stepbrother, Leander (Diana) Jones; nephew, Brian Blackmon; great nieces and nephews, Chrisharra, Ar'yanna, Brian, II and Leander, Jr.; many cousins, including Laura H. Allen, Michelle Hunt McClary, Marva Kendell, Jermonia Allen-Smith and Jerri Allen-Gilliam; dear and special friends, Chamarra Clark, Sarah Reed, Dorothy Freeman and Jerry Allen; several extended family

Farewell Reflections

Trusting in God, we have prayed together for Trinna and now we come to the last farewell. There is sadness in parting, but we take comfort in the hope that one day we shall see her again and enjoy her love and friendship. Although this congregation will disperse in sorrow, the mercy of God will gather us together again in the joy of His kingdom.

We'll Remember You

Author: Jilchristy Dee

We'll remember you in sunshine it's rays warming earth and sky We'll remember you in bird's graceful wings as they glide and flutter by

We'll remember you in the summer breeze and in softly falling rain We'll remember you in dark storm clouds the rainbow's picture frame

We'll remember you in blossoms and fields and in gentle streams that flow We'll remember you in all that lives... all that brings life... that grows

We'll remember you in the mountains when golden leaves fall at our feet We'll remember you when glowing sunsets cast sparkling embers on the beach

We'll remember you in the Christmas lights glimmering bright with joy and hope We'll remember you when white winter storms cover canyon, field and slope

We'll remember you when we're at our best keep your mem'ry close during darkest days We'll remember you when each day dawns in these simple, yet precious ways

Moment by moment we'll remember you, you'll never be too far away Because we'll keep you in our hearts each and every day
