If I Can Help Somebody

*If I can help somebody, as I pass along,
If I can cheer somebody, with a word or song,
If I can show somebody, how they're travelling wrong,
Then my living shall not be in vain.
If I can do my duty, as a good man ought,
If I can bring back beauty, to a world up wrought,
If I can spread love's message, as the Master taught,
Then my living shall not be in vain
My living shall not be in vain,
Then my living shall not be in vain
If I can help somebody, as I pass along,
Then my living shall not be in vain.*

Obituary

Gloria Ann Cuthrell gained her wings on January 26, 2026, departing this life peacefully and surrounded by loved ones. Born on August 28, 1954 in Bethania, North Carolina, she lived a life marked by service, strength, and deep commitment to her family, her faith and her church.

A proud attendee of Winston-Salem State University and Johnson C. Smith University, she carried her passion for education into a distinguished career spanning decades within the Winston-Salem Forsyth County School System. Her dedication shaped generations of students, and her influence continues to echo through the countless lives she touched.

Her faith was a cornerstone of her life. She was a devoted member of Bethania A.M.E. Zion Church, where she served faithfully in the choir, the hospitality committee, and the missionary board. Her warm spirit, generous heart, and willingness to serve made her a beloved presence within her church family.

She was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Julia and James Crutchfield Sr., her two brothers, Forrest Crutchfield, James Crutchfield Jr.(Carolynn Crutchfield), a brother-in-law Lonnie Allred, and a beloved aunts Louise Shouse (Robert Shouse), and Melinda Lash.

She leaves to cherish her memory her spouse, Rayvon Cuthrell, her children Lamar Cuthrell and Latoya Cuthrell, grandchildren, Christopher Cuthrell and Cameron Cuthrell, her beloved nieces and nephews, Sharon Crutchfield, Elaine Dunlap (Haywood Dunlap III), Erika Allred-Drake (Exodus Drake), Lonnie Allred Jr, Allen Crutchfield, Jocelyn Clark (Ray Clark), Keeshauna Sturdivant, Omarion Sturdivant, Erik Autry and Frederick Beal. A loving aunt Frances Cloud, a special friend Alexandra Canavos, a special caregiver Margaret Cromer, and a host of extended family, former students, church members, and dear friends who will forever remember her warmth, wisdom, and unwavering grace.

Her legacy lives on in the classrooms she shaped, the ministries she supported, the songs she lifted in praise, and the family she loved so deeply.
