

Mother Dearest

*How I adore you, How I appreciate you,
How grateful I am to have had you all these years.
How a blessing and honor it was to nurture and care for you.
I wouldn't have had it any other way.
How I loved you so much I didn't want to let you go.
But the choice to make it, it is the Lord's.
Oh, how I did just so, letting you go,
you are free, no pain, no illness and no more suffering.
You are rejoicing in a new heavenly home
With dad and all the beautiful loved ones.
I just wanted to say thank you so much mom
for all the love you gave.
Oh, how I will miss you much!
But worried, I am not, we will see each other again
one sweet day.
What a beautiful reunion it will be.*

Forever More*

Obituary

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. II Timothy 4:6-7

Our beloved Mattie Lean Leake transitioned to her eternal rest on Tuesday, October 8, 2024. She was born in Wadesboro, Anson County North Carolina on July 6, 1947. Mattie was the daughter of the late Helen Brigham.

Educated at the School for the Deaf and Blind in Raleigh, North Carolina, she graduated with the class of 1967. At the school is where she met her life long partner and husband, Thurmond.

Mattie was fun loving. She enjoyed laughter, music and being around her family and friends. A devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, she was a friend to all who knew her and to know her was to love her. Mattie enjoyed being in her garden and was a phenomenal cook. Culinary arts were her profession.

Mattie was preceded in death by her husband, Thurmond Thompson; sister, Marlene Watkins; three brothers; Duncan Leake, Sandy Brigham, and David Brigham.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her sons, Robert Leake and Addison Leake; granddaughter, Latoya Sides; great granddaughter, Laila Sides; brothers, Eddie Brigham, Tracy Brigham, Gary Brigham; a very devoted brother and sister-in-law, Anthony and Diane Brigham of Fayetteville, North Carolina; and a very devoted cousin-in-law, Arnold Thompson.

*Being a family means you are part of something very wonderful.
It means you will love and be loved for the rest of your days and beyond.*
