

Mandy

109

I remember all my life, rainin' down as cold as ice
Shadows of a man, a face through a window Cryin' in the night, the night goes into

Mornin', just another day, happy people pass my way
Lookin' in their eyes, I see a memory, I never realized
How happy you made me, oh Mandy

Well you came and you gave without takin'
But I sent you away, oh Mandy
Well, you kissed me and stopped me from shakin'
And I need you today, oh Mandy

Standin' on the edge of time, walked away when love was mine
Caught up in a world of uphill climbin', the tears are in my mind
And nothing is rhymin', oh Mandy

Well you came and you gave without takin'
But I sent you away, oh Mandy
Well, you kissed me and stopped me from shakin'
and I need you today, oh Mandy

Yesterday's a dream, I face the mornin', cryin' on a breeze
The pain is callin', oh Mandy

Well you came and you gave without takin'
But I sent you away, oh Mandy
Well, you kissed me and stopped me from shakin'
and I need you today, oh Mandy
