Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sang a song or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words or sent a gift our way.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much...
Whatever the part.

As a child, he grew up in the Methodist church and later attended Oak Grove Baptist in Walkertown, NC.

He was educated in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools. He decided to enter the workforce when he moved to Washington, DC, where he worked at Washington, DC General Hospital. In his later years he returned to Walkertown, NC.

Fletcher was preceded in death by five brothers: Willis, Oliver, Glenn, Olin, and Porter Abbott; three sisters, Leona Croxton, Thelma Smith, and Louise Douthit.

He leaves to cherish his memory, two sisters, Irene Douthit and Reba Galloway; one brother, Bobby (Barbara) Abbott, Sr.; sisters-in-law, Mary Abbott and Delores Abbott of Winston-Salem, NC, and Faye Abbott of Waldorf, MD; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews as well as great-great nieces and great great-nephews, who loved him dearly; and a host of family and friends.

Don't Cry for Me

Please don't cry for me, please don't weep,
For I am not dead, I'm only asleep.
You see, I'm resting now from life's suffering and pain
My crown in glory, I now wait to gain.
I want you to know that I love you,
Oh, I love you so,
But now the time has come for me to go.
The gulf between life and death is not very wide,
We will meet again soon on the other side.
