PIRI PIRI: THE SPICE OF LIFE

Back in the days when explorers set off in search of new lands, they’d come home with a variety of treasures. Around 1574, however, Portuguese explorers in search of a short cut to the East stopped at a port in Mozambique to replenish their supplies and of course check out the nightlife.

While they were there, they discovered something that would change their lives forever - a tiny pepper. Piri Piri grew wild in the tiny South African nation, and as the Portuguese people discovered all the fantastic spices and sauces they could create with the pepper, the explorers soon became settlers.

Maybe it was the flavors that the Piri Piri sauce brought out in the chicken and fish they cooked. Or the spices used with the natural herbs and oil to make marinades, bastes and dipping sauces that to this day make you literally crave more. Or maybe it was the rumored aphrodisiac. (That’s probably why they went from being explorers to settlers.)

Whatever it is about the 5-time award winning Piri Piri sauce, the unique and unforgettable flavor lives here at Boneheads. We invite you to take the adventure and savor the spice of life yourself.

A relaxed place with SERIOUS taste!

We call ourselves Boneheads, because there was a time when we believed that we were...boneheads.

On a beautiful spring day in 2006, two different chefs, driving two different cars, simultaneously and accidentally collided. One chef was from Atlanta, and he had been noodling a casual restaurant concept that featured grilled fish. The other was South African, and he was trying to introduce the U.S. to a specialty Piri Piri Pepper Sauce he had perfected in his home country. The two men eyed their cars–then each other–and declared themselves boneheads.

This, of course, proved to be a serendipitous collision–a happy accident. The mishap produced a professional partnership. Each chef’s ideas married perfectly, and Boneheads was born in Atlanta.

Today, we’ve grown to twelve franchise locations in eight states.

We like to watch where we’re going.

A парна меса с SERIOUS вкус!

Ми наричаме себе самите Boneheads, поради това имахме време, в което ние бяхме...Boneheads.

На красивата пролетен ден в 2006, два различни кулинари, държащи две различни коли, съвместно и случайно се сблъскаха. Еден хуморац бил от Атланта, и той беше мърморил за добре облечено ресторанчково концепции, които предлагаха прергени риби. Другият бил южноафриканецът, и той първо искаше да представи САЩ на специалния Piri Piri перцепър си, който беше постигнал успех в родния си му край. Двете хумораци гледаха своите коли–тогава други–и обявиха, че са Boneheads.

Това, разбира се, беше съвпадение на ред и сърдечна случайност. Милостивата нещастна среща създала професионална партньорство. Каждите идеи се съчетаха идеално, и Boneheads бил роден в Атланта.

Днес, ние сме израснали до дванадесет франчайз локации в осем държави.

Ми се иска да се наблюдавам за къде сме се движим.
