TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 3, 2021

From the beginning of creation, God made them male and female.

For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.

MARK 10:6-8

Detail, Anonymous, The Creation of the World, Germany, c.1170s

Desde el principio, al crearlos, Dios los hizo hombre y mujer.

Por eso dejará el hombre a su padre y a su madre y se unirá a su esposa y serán los dos una sola cosa.

MARCOS 10:6-8

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The man said, "This one is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman'" (Genesis 2:18-24).

Psalm — May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives (Psalm 128).

Second Reading — He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin (Hebrews 2:9-11).

Gospel — Whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it (Mark 10:2-16 [2-12]).

LITURGY CORNEROctober 3 - TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 4 - St. Francis of Assisi

October 5 - St. Faustina Kowalska, Virgin;
Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos, Priest

October 6 - St. Bruno, Priest;
Blessed Marie Rose Durocher, Virgin

October 7 - Our Lady of the Rosary

October 9 - St. Denis, Bishop, and Companions, Martyrs;
St. John Leonardi, Priest

Saint Francis of Assisi While he was as qualified as any to be ordained a priest, he never was, feeling unworthy to ascend the altar steps and call upon God's power to bring about the miracle of the Holy Eucharist. It is recorded that St. Francis often said, "If I saw an Angel and a priest, I would bend my knee first to the priest and then to the Angel." This again reflected the special respect St. Francis had for ordained priests. -Aleteia

Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos he was ordained a Redemptorist priest, he served German immigrants in Pittsburgh and taught seminarians in Baltimore.

St. Faustina Kowalska was a Polish Roman Catholic nun and mystic. Her apparitions of Jesus Christ inspired the Roman Catholic devotion to the Divine Mercy and earned her the title of "Secretary of Divine Mercy".

Saint Bruno founder of the Carthusian Order; he wrote to his friend, "to abandon the fleeting shadows of this world...and lay hold of the eternal by taking the monastic habit."

Blessed Marie Rose Durocher worked as a housekeeper to her brother, a priest; her heart was moved by the plight of poor girls, with two companions, founded the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary to educate the girls.

Our Lady of the Rosary this Memorial, established by Pope St. Pius V in thanksgiving for the victory at Lepanto, October 7, 1571. At Fatima, on October 13, 1917, Mary revealed to the children: "I am the Lady of the Rosary." She told them to pray the rosary every day.

Saint Denis and Companions were three missionaries, gave their lives for the Faith on a high hill outside of Paris, a worship site for ancient pagans; the hill thenceforth was called Montmartre, "the mount of the martyrs."

Saint John Leonardi was a pharmacist, then decided to become a priest; he gathered young men to serve the sick and those in prison, this became the Order of Clerics Regular of the Mother of God.

Brothers and Sisters,

On this twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time, we celebrate Respect Life Sunday. Today's observance emphasizes concern for all human life, especially that of the unborn, the elderly, persons with disabilities, the terminally ill and all others whose lives are easily threatened. Tomorrow on October 4th we celebrate the Memorial of St. Francis of Assisi and as has been customary at St. Catherine's, yesterday, Saturday October 2nd, we celebrated a Blessing of the Animals. Our beloved pets are compassion in action, accepting us exactly as we are no matter what. Even when they pass away, we think of them often and their memory warms our hearts, and we can still feel their loving presence. God bless you Deacon John for this celebration.

Today's readings celebrate the importance of love and respect within families and within the broader community. The theme we find in the first reading from Genesis is about God's original desire for humans to find in each of us a bond of love that runs so deeply that we never feel alone. God can be found in relationships, in the kind and selfless love that we express with those whom we are closest. It is found in relationships between wives and husbands, between parents and children and between close friends. When we sacrifice our own needs and desires for the needs and desires of others, we reflect Jesus' mission to us. When we lower our own needs below the needs of those we love, we live Jesus' mission.

In our second reading Paul speaks of what Jesus willingly did for the sake of all men. Through Jesus' suffering and death, he accomplished the destiny for which he was sent-the salvation of the human race. Jesus became less than who he was, and by doing so, he raised us up. We must be willing to follow his example. People and groups who we may consider less than ourselves are our equal before God. They are our brothers and sisters. We are called to embrace and bless them as Jesus did.

Frequently in our gospel reading, we hear the Pharisees testing Jesus, by questioning him on points of law. Those promoting a particular viewpoint would use scripture to persuade others. When it comes to the question of divorce, Jesus tests the Pharisee's knowledge of Mosaic law and then counters their answer with his own scripture reference (Genesis 1:27 and 2:24), pointing to the intimate relationship of men and women from the beginning of creation. Both are created in God's image, destined to live in relationship with one another. For Jesus, marriage is a blessed relationship and the proper arena in which to fulfill the original biblical commandment to be fruitful and multiply. Jesus focuses on the sanctity of marriage rather than on the lawfulness of divorce. He raises the understanding of marriage from a civil institution to a state of living, blessed by God.

While Jesus and the Pharisees have been discussing Mosaic law, the people were bringing children to him that he might "touch them" and the disciples try to block them. Jesus saw this happening and rebukes the disciples, saying to them, "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these." Jesus wants to meet them for they are precious and worthy of his blessing. Jesus blesses the children because he loves the vulnerable and has compassion for those whose innocence and powerlessness make them susceptible to being marginalized and treated as unimportant.

VINCENTIAN CORNER

Vincentians go out in teams of at least 2 volunteers to visit those in need throughout our city. Do you have a few hours a week or month to spend spreading the light of Christ? We bring non-perishable food items and spend time listening and praying with those we visit. Sometimes we are able to assist with a past due Utility bill or a small portion of rent. It is amazing that we always receive far more than we give during our home visits.

If you know of someone needing assistance, please have them call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 951/684-7386...we are here to help!

Have you considered answering the call to serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? Please contact Robert Lucero at (951) 784-7642 for more information.

2021 RESPECT LIFE MONTH

Every October the Catholic Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday is observed as Respect Life Sunday. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning to the end of their lives, and at every point in between.

This year as part of the Year of St. Joseph, the Respect Life month highlights and focuses on St. Joseph as a defender of life.

DIOCESE OF SAN BERNARDINO

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life
Dearest St. Joseph,

at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God’s humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God’s most precious gift of life.

Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life —especially where it is vulnerable or threatened.

Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things.
Amen.

Serving the youth

Fr. Nick and I have been graced to visit two young men in juvenile hall, sharing the Father's Love - that is our main message. As the Officer is walking us out, he made a comment, "They (youth) have been consistent in attending church services." We agree, yes, they have; we admire the youth, they decide to set their breakfast aside until church services is over, their priority these past early Saturday mornings has been to meet with Jesus.

Again, we have no idea what event brought them in to the hall. In the meantime, they express being grateful to share their faith, both share that they grew up in neighboring parishes, where they remembered attending Mass with their families. They share that they have celebrated their first Sacraments.

These two young men are taking advantage of the opportunities presented to them to attend college; at the moment, it is on-line classes, nevertheless they are pursuing their education.

They will be out in a few months, completing their sentences, back to their homes, they are aware of the temptations that may be present and that it will not be easy. We remind them that Jesus accompanies them, to continue to pray, to continue to read scripture, and invite them back to church wherever people make them feel welcomed - if they decide to attend Mass here at St Catherine's will they feel welcomed?

Taking a child he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

FEAST OF FAITH*The Sign of Peace

“Greet one another with a holy kiss,” wrote Saint Paul to the Corinthians (1 Corinthians 16:20), and he said the same thing to other communities as well. The holy kiss, the sign of peace, has been a hallmark of Christians from the very beginning. In giving and receiving the sign of peace, we are not giving something of our own, but something that Christ has given to us. “Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you,” Jesus told his disciples (John 14:27). Jesus comes to us when we gather together in community. We celebrate the Eucharist not just to receive spiritual nourishment to help us on our solitary way to salvation, but to be transformed into one body, the Body of Christ in the world. As we receive the Eucharist, we are not only united to Christ; we are united to each other. It is never easy to live in community, and we hurt each other on the way. So we need to turn to each other in a sign of reconciliation and forgiveness, to look into each other’s eyes, and give and receive the peace that is not ours, but Christ’s.

Dejen que los niños se acerquen a mí

y no se lo impidan, porque el Reino de Dios es
de los que son como ellos.

Marcos 10:14

DIOS NO SE DA POR VENCIDO

Nuestras lecturas de hoy señalan el profundo compromiso de Dios con las relaciones humanas. El pasaje del Génesis inicia con el anuncio de que Dios creó a las personas humanas para que fueran seres sociales, que únicamente pueden prosperar cuando viven en una profunda conexión con los demás y con Dios. El autor de la carta a los hebreos enseña que la venida de Jesús como uno de nosotros muestra el compromiso radical de Dios con la vida humana. La enseñanza de Jesús acerca del divorcio, descrita en el Evangelio de hoy, muestra la profunda investidura de Dios en el matrimonio, e implícitamente, en todas las relaciones humanas. Cuando nuestras relaciones personales con los demás están distanciadas o rotas, Dios trata de sanarlas. Cuando las estructuras sociales sirven para mantener la opresión, o para mantener a los grupos en un conflicto continuo, Dios trabaja para acabarlas. Incluso cuando nos damos por vencidos, Dios no se da por vencido. Dios trabajará constantemente y a través de nosotros, dentro de todo el dolor y la alegría de la circunstancia humana.

COMO UN NIÑO

El pasaje de hoy del Evangelio de Marcos está en el contexto de la enseñanza de Jesús acerca del reino, o el reinado, de Dios. Una idea común era que la entrada en el reino se basaba en el origen familiar, en los logros o en el lugar que se tenía en la comunidad. Jesús se opone a eso y presenta a un niño como modelo de receptividad y apertura.

Esto no quiere decir que los adultos deban rechazar de algún modo la sabiduría adquirida a través de la experiencia adulta y volver a la infancia. La madurez adulta también incluye el viaje difícil, generalmente más tarde en la vida, de dejar ir las ilusiones que hemos construido sobre nuestra propia virtud, habilidades y autonomía. Las enseñanzas de Jesús se oponen a nuestra cultura, que honra la energía y el vigor, la experiencia y los logros. Estos valiosos dones pueden fallar si no aceptamos nuestra dependencia en Dios, que proporciona y cultiva estos dones. Podemos aceptar la gracia de Dios en nuestra vida cuando abrimos nuestro corazón como lo hace un niño.

ORGULLOSO DE SER HUMANO

Hoy es el primero de siete domingos consecutivos en los que se leerá la carta a los hebreos. La carta es un sermón extenso de un autor desconocido dirigido a la comunidad cristiana en la que probablemente muchos de origen judío empezaron a seguir las enseñanzas de Jesús. El autor intenta vincular a Jesús con la historia del pueblo de Israel, construyendo una imagen en Cristo como el sumo sacerdote perfecto de Dios. Cristo, el Sumo Sacerdote, es descrito como el vínculo central entre la humanidad y Dios.

Cuando reflexionamos sobre la vida y la muerte de Jesús, podemos aceptar más profundamente que, a través de Jesús, Dios conoce lo que experimentamos los humanos. Jesús, el Sumo Sacerdote, abraza su humanidad. En el pasaje de hoy, el autor afirma que Jesús está orgulloso de ser humano, orgulloso de ser nuestro hermano en la familia de Dios. La carta a los hebreos no es sólo una celebración de Cristo, sino una afirmación de la dignidad de nuestra propia vida humana.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Génesis 2:18-24
Salmo 128 (127):1-2, 3, 4-5, 6
Hebreos 2:9-11
Marcos 10:2-16 [2-12]

FIESTA DE LA FE

Comunión bajo las dos especies

Lo común es que las primeras generaciones de emigrantes tengan en su experiencia litúrgica la sagrada comunión solamente bajo la especie del pan. La han recibido bajo las dos especies sólo en circunstancias extraordinarias. Aunque la teología más tradicional nos ha enseñado que al comulgar el pan solamente (la hostia), comulgamos también la Sangre del Señor, el comulgar bajo las dos especies tiene mucho sentido, no porque Jesús esté incompleto al comulgar sólo alguna de las formas, sino porque Cristo se nos da plenamente y nosotros nos unimos plenamente a él. El pan, en la tradición judía, solía suplir al cordero pascual que les recordaba la liberación de Egipto; asimismo, el vino les recordaba la alianza que Dios había establecido con ellos. Para nosotros, los cristianos, el pan es el Cuerpo de Cristo, en plenitud, que se nos da, como se nos dio en la Última Cena y también en la cruz. El cáliz, que tiene la sangre de la alianza "nueva y eterna", representa nuestro deseo de "beber el mismo cáliz" que Jesús bebió, seguirlo hasta las últimas consecuencias. Al beberlo confesamos públicamente no sólo nuestra fe en Cristo, sino nuestro deseo de compartir su suerte, la de la cruz.

INFORMACIÓN LITÚRGICA

3 de octubre - Vigésimo Séptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

4 de octubre - San Francisco Asís

5 de octubre - Santa Faustina Kowalska, virgen; Beato Francisco Javier Seelos, presbítero

6 de octubre - San Bruno, presbítero; Beata María Rosa Durocher, virgen

7 de octubre - Bienaventurada Virgen María del Rosario

9 de octubre - Santos Dionisio, obispo, y compañeros, mártires; San Juan Leonardi, presbítero

San Francisco de Asís Aunque estaba capacitado como cualquiera para ser ordenado sacerdote, nunca lo fue, pues se sentía indigno de subir los escalones del altar e invocar el poder de Dios para realizar el milagro de la Sagrada Eucaristía. Consta que San Francisco decía a menudo: “Si viera un Ángel y un sacerdote, doblaría la rodilla primero ante el sacerdote y luego ante el Ángel”. Esto reflejaba de nuevo el respeto especial que San Francisco sentía por los sacerdotes ordenados. -Aleteia

El beato Francisco Javier Seelos fue ordenado sacerdote redentorista, sirvió a los inmigrantes alemanes en Pittsburgh y enseñó a los seminaristas en Baltimore.

Santa Faustina Kowalska fue una monja católica romana de Polonia y mística. Sus apariciones de Jesucristo inspiraron la devoción católica a la Divina Misericordia y le valieron el título de “Secretaria de la Divina Misericordia”.

San Bruno fundador de la Orden de los Cartujos; escribió a su amigo: “abandona las sombras fugaces de este mundo... y aférrate a lo eterno tomando el hábito monástico”.

La beata María Rosa Durocher trabajó como ama de llaves para su hermano, un sacerdote; su corazón se conmovió por la situación de las niñas pobres, con dos compañeras, fundó las Hermanas de los Santos Nombres de Jesús y María para educar a las niñas.

Nuestra Señora del Rosario este Memorial, establecido por el Papa San Pío V en acción de gracias por la victoria de Lepanto, el 7 de octubre de 1571.

En Fátima, el 13 de octubre de 1917, María reveló a los niños: “Yo soy la Señora del Rosario” y les dijo que rezaran el rosario todos los días.

San Dionisio y sus compañeros fueron tres misioneros que dieron su vida por la fe en una colina alta en las afueras de París, lugar de culto para los antiguos paganos; la colina se llamó desde entonces Montmartre, “el monte de los mártires”.

San Juan Leonardi era farmacéutico, luego decidió hacerse sacerdote; reunió a jóvenes para servir a los enfermos y a los encarcelados, esto se convirtió en la Orden de los Clérigos

Intención de oración del Santo Padre para el mes de octubre 2021:

Intención para la evangelización—Discípulos misioneros

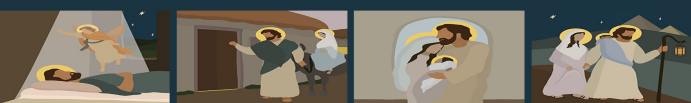

Recemos para que cada bautizado participe en la evangelización y esté disponible para la misión, a través de un testimonio de vida que tenga el sabor del Evangelio.

MINISTERIO DE SALUD

La clínica móvil está disponible el 16 de octubre de 2021 de 9:00 am a 1:00 pm para pacientes adultos, en el patio trasero de la escuela de St. Catherine, cerca de las mesas de picnic. Se ofrece cuidado médico para adultos, laboratorio y medicamento de bajo costo, los pacientes serán atendidos conforme lleguen y se registren. Durante la pandemia de Coronavirus, llame al 714-633-4600 para realizar la preselección y hacer una cita.

octubre de 2021 MES RESPETEMOS LA VIDA

¡San José, defensor de la vida, ruega por nosotros!

Oración a san José, defensor de la vida

Amadísimo san José:

Ante el pedido de un ángel, amorosamente llevaste a María a tu hogar.

Como humilde siervo de Dios, guiaste a la Sagrada Familia por el camino hacia Belén, acogiste a Jesús como tu hijo en el refugio de un pesebre, y huiste lejos de tu patria para la seguridad de la Madre y el Hijo.

Alabamos a Dios porque tú, siendo su fiel protector, nunca dudaste sacrificarte por quienes fueron encomendados a ti. Que tu ejemplo nos inspire también para acoger, atesorar y proteger el más preciado don de la vida que nos regala Dios. Ayúdanos a comprometernos con fidelidad para servir y defender la vida humana —en especial donde es vulnerable o esté amenazada.

Obtennos la gracia de hacer la voluntad de Dios en todas las cosas.

Amén.
