

When Great Trees Fall

*When great trees fall,
rocks on distant hills shudder,
lions hunker down
in tall grasses,
and even elephants
lumber after safety.*

*And when great souls die,
after a period peace blooms,
slowly and always irregularly.*

Spaces fill with a kind of soothing electric vibration.

Our senses, restored, never to be the same, whisper to us.

They existed. They existed.

We can be. Be and be better.

For they existed.

The Obituary

Tony Bernard Ingram Sr., a beloved father, brother, uncle, partner, and friend, was born on May 20, 1968, to Lewis Franklin Ingram Sr. (deceased) and Emma Lee Cole. A devoted son, he always cherished the memories of his parents.

Tony was a beacon of kindness and selflessness, always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. His compassionate nature touched the lives of many, leaving a mark on the hearts of all who knew him. Tony's unwavering dependability and generosity made him a pillar of his community.

In his professional life, Tony was dedicated to his business T & S Trucking, where he exemplified integrity and diligence in all that he did. He was respected and admired by clients for his professionalism and reliability.

He leaves behind to cherish and honor his legacy, his loving son, Tony Bernard Ingram Jr., who was his pride and joy; mother, Emma Cole Ingram; a cherished brother to Lewis Franklin (Ola) Ingram Jr.; and a beloved uncle to his nephews Justin and Lewis Ingram III; as well as his great-nephew Josiah Ingram; his aunts, Ruby Griffin, Ann Galloway, and Vicky Miller. He was a devoted partner to his fiancée, Angela Gordon, who stood by his side through thick and thin.

Tony's legacy of kindness, compassion, and selflessness will live on in the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing him. He will be deeply missed but forever remembered for his boundless love and generosity. Rest in peace, Tony.
