

DELTA AGRICULTURAL CREDIT ASSOCIATION IN VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION

NOTICE OF VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION AND PROCEDURES FOR SUBMITTING CLAIMS TO THE LIQUIDATION AGENT

TO: ALL CREDITORS AND OTHER PERSONS WITH AN INTEREST IN THE AFFAIRS OF DELTA AGRICULTURAL CREDIT ASSOCIATION

BACKGROUND

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) and Shareholders of Delta Agricultural Credit Association (the “Association”) and the Farm Credit Administration have approved a Plan of Voluntary Liquidation with Loan Portfolio Sale of the Association (the “Plan”) in accordance with 12 USC § 2183(a) and 12 CFR § 627.2795. Pursuant to the Plan, the Board has retained Quattlebaum, Grooms & Tull PLLC, acting solely by and through Geoffrey B. Treece, (contact information below) to serve as Liquidation Agent for the Association.

The terms of the Plan, among other things, provides for the collection and sale of all or substantially all the assets of the Association and the distribution of all proceeds to claimants or creditors holding allowed claims against the Association. Allowed claims means all undisputed or uncontested claims against the Association. The Liquidation Agent has the authority under the Plan to contest disputed claims in court and to compromise and settle disputed claims. All allowed claims of creditors of the Association shall be paid in full by the Liquidation Agent if there are sufficient assets on hand to pay such claims. Distributions to creditors holding allowed claims shall be made as soon as it is feasible to do so in the sole discretion of the Liquidation Agent provided, however, that all distributions shall be made consistent with the terms and provisions of the Plan.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: YOUR CLAIM MUST BE IN WRITING AND EITHER POSTMARKED OR RECEIVED BY THE LIQUIDATION AGENT NO LATER THAN AUGUST 9, 2022 OR YOU MAY BE BARRED FROM ANY MONETARY DISTRIBUTION FROM THE LIQUIDATION PROCEEDS.

Reported Claims: If a creditor’s claim has already been reported to the Association by invoice, statement, or other instrument in writing, only a letter or any other form of written notice must be submitted to the Liquidation Agent on or before the deadline for filing of claims. It is not necessary to attach additional documentation to your written claim. A copy of this Notice is also being transmitted via regular, First Class U.S. Mail to all known creditors of the Association together with the Liquidation Agent’s statement of the amount of the claim as it is reflected in the books and records of the Association. If you dispute the Liquidation Agent’s statement of the amount of your claim as reflected in the books and records of the Association, you MUST submit all documentation in your possession or control supporting your claim. If documentation supporting your claim has been lost or destroyed, a sworn statement of the facts and circumstances of the claim must be submitted to the Liquidation Agent with your letter of other form of written notice of your claim.

Unreported Claims: If a claim has not been reported to the Association, a letter, or any other form of written notice together with all documentation supporting the claim must be submitted to the Liquidation Agent on or before the deadline for filing of claims. If documentation supporting your claim has been lost or destroyed, a sworn statement of the facts and circumstances of the claim must be submitted to the Liquidation Agent with your letter of other form of written notice of your claim.

Claims should be delivered to the Liquidation Agent by either by any form of overnight mail, regular, First Class U.S. Mail or electronic mail, as follows: Geoffrey B. Treece, Liquidation Agent, Quattlebaum, Grooms & Tull PLLC, 111 Center Street, Suite 1900, Little Rock, Arkansas 72201; Direct Dial: (501)379-1735; Electronic mail: gtreece@qgtlaw.com.

Change of Address: You are required to notify the Liquidation Agent of a change of address. If you fail to do so, you may jeopardize recovery of your claim from the Association.

You may also contact the Liquidation Agent by any means if you have general questions about the liquidation, claims and distribution process and procedures. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Notice and the information contained herein are in summary form and may not contain all necessary information for your situation. You are urged to consult an attorney if you have any questions.
