Music City News Album Review - August 1989

JUICE NEWTON

Ain't Gonna Cry

"This versatile songstress proves with her swan song RCA LP why she has remained one of musicdom's most consistent hitmakers. Showing her usual wide-ranging musical abilities, the singer effortlessly glides from the rollicking When Love Comes Around The Bend to the soft and romantic The Moment You Were Mine. A delightful remake of the classic (And) Then He Kissed Me is a treat as is the Otha Young/Johnny Pierce written Say You'll Be Mine. Though she will no longer make her home with ole Nipper, chances are she'll always find a warm welcome from country fans." (RCA 8376-4-R) (Williams).

Following are a few of Juice's recent appearances here and there across the country:

* Early in June, Juice was featured with Leeza Gibbons of Entertainment Tonight, showing Leeza and all expectant mothers watching, how to do some safe and helpful exercises during pregnancy to make their days a little easier. In our area this was shown on ABC (Chan. 8). We hope a lot of you caught the show because Juice was great and made it look so easy!

* On July 22nd she appeared on American Bandstand. She never sang better and never looked better. She sang Only Walkin' first, wearing a brilliant sky-blue full length dress. Her second song was, (And) Then He Kissed Me, and this time she was smartly dressed in a pant suit with a hot pink satin top over black pants and on her head was a striking black Stetson. Her performance and appearance were impressive indeed, and those young people really danced to her music!

* On August 12th Juice made a guest appearance for a Rodeo Benefit at the Los Angeles Equestrian Center. Later in the week this benefit was featured on Crook & Chase, Nashville, and Juice made a short statement about the benefit saying she would be singing later on in the program. (We admire Juice for her willingness to always participate in benefits that help those who really need help!!)

An amusing personal tidbit for all our 8-yr-old JNFC Members!

On July 21st I took the Ain't Gonna Cry cassette to my 8-year-old great-granddaughter, Kristi Young who was playing with her 8-year-old cousin, Timmy Jenkins at their grandmother's home. They were so excited they begged to play it right away, but their grandmother suggested they play it on the way to her hairdresser. When they reached the beauty shop, the children stayed in the car and played the cassette. They played that cassette through 5 times and when grandma came out to go home, the car wouldn't start! You guessed it, the battery was dead! I know it was trouble for all concerned getting the battery charged, but I was delighted the youngsters liked the album that much! I wished they were old enough to be DJ's or the head of the promotional dept. of some major label so this album could be heard across the country. These little cousins have excellent taste in music! Kids are so precious! God Bless them all! (M.Y.)

CENTER STAGE, NASHVILLE JUICE SQUEEZES OUT TIME FOR WORK AND HOME

"Life as a country-star mother of a 2 year old is all a matter of deciding priorities," says Juice Newton. Jessica Ann, the two and a half year old daughter of Juice and Tom Goodspeed, has become 'roadworthy and hotel wise' during her travels with her mom. Juice took time Tuesday for a telephone interview about balancing the obligations of career and family. "I don't feel that a reconciliation is needed," she said, "I think a decision is needed that I can do both of these things. Your priorities are put in line more directly ... is it more important to hang out or to go to Disneyland?" Lately, the Disneyland side of the equation has been getting more attention. "I've been able to maintain so far, but it is not a piece of cake," said Newton whose second child is due in November. "Your days get longer and your nights get shorter. Whenever you take on the responsibility of a family, you can't be as selfish." Newton has lessened her touring pace somewhat since she was scoring early 80's hits, but that's partly because of a broken back suffered in a fall from a horse the year her daughter was born. On the LP Ain't Gonna Cry there's a rousing remake of the 1963 Crystal's hit, (And) Then He Kissed Me. Despite her extensive success with remakes, Newton's not an oldies fanatic. In fact, she's a folkie at heart, she explains in discussing the standout album cut, I'm Only Walkin'.

"That's a fun song, very reminiscent of the music I started in, which was folk music," she said. Performances on her forthcoming tour, which includes a Nashville stop Tuesday, will include material from all phases of Newton's career." (Sent in by JNFC Member, Buddy Scott, Nashville, TN.)

(A note from Buddy:) Thanks for getting the letter to me quick enough for me to get backstage. The show was simply fantastic! She got two well-deserved standing ovations. I could listen to her and see her show 7 days a week, 52 weeks a year, and never get tired.

"Catching Up On Fun With Juice"

by Mick La Salle Staff Writer for the San Francisco Chronicle,
July 14th, at the Solano County Fair Concert, Vallejo, California.

"I gave myself two hours to drive the 30-something miles from San Francisco to Vallejo to see Juice Newton's concert at the Solano County Fair. I figured I'd get there a good hour before the second show, browse around a bit, win a few stuffed animals, etc., but Friday night between 7 and 9 o'clock there was a 30-mile traffic jam on interstate 80, stop-and go all the way from Oakland to the Carquinez bridge. By the time I parked the heap at the fairgrounds, ran like a maniac and got to the outdoor theater, Newton and her five-man band, were already 10 minutes into their show. I turned to the woman next to me and asked her what I'd missed. "Heart Of The Night and Angel Of The Morning," she said.

Terrific! Just the two songs I was singing in the shower all week, like a happy idiot."

Accompanying herself on guitar, Newton sang Ride 'Em Cowboy, one of her country hits, and when she finished, she actually thanked the audience for sitting through it. "Not a lot of audiences will sit still for acoustic material." Her voice sounds something like Rosanne Cash's, only stronger . . . but there's a psychological complexity about Cash, while Newton stays on the surface, catchy, pleasant, and, occasionally, delightful. She makes music everybody likes. Queen Of Hearts isn't played much at parties, but rolling down the road with the windows up, we've all sung it."

She sang I'm Only Walkin' (a new song about a little girl talking about her home town,) and then she played a few fast numbers that had people dancing in the isles . . . She got a standing ovation for 'Hurt', and then closed with Queen Of Hearts, with a nice little yodel in her voice. She came back and did her biggest country hit, The Sweetest Thing. It's one of the few songs Newton performs that sounds inspired by emotion, rather than a desire to be fun."

••••• JUICE AT JUBILEE, NIAGRA, WISCONSIN,

(by Ron Kramer, Staff Writer, Daily News.)

"A parade, musical entertainment, a visit by Wisconsin Gov. Tommy Thompson, and fireworks were among the activities scheduled for the final two days of the Niagara Diamond Jubilee Celebration, with an estimated crowd between 8,000 to 10,000, said Ron Sonntag, publicist for the festival. He said singer Juice Newton really got the audience into her songs and had them clapping their hands along with the music."

(From JNFC Member Karen Immerfall, Marshfield, WI.)

(A note from Karen) . . . "My sister and I went to Niagara WI., on July 21st. We traveled four hours to get there! The concert was fantastic, as usual, she has so much energy and such a beautiful voice. I bought the new album and I play the whole album about twice a day, every day, while jogging. Besides being #1 on this album, (And) Then He Kissed Me, is my #1 favorite of all time.

JUICE SINGING IN THE RAIN!

Juice Newton opened the fair's entertainment by singing in the rain

Juice performing at the Washington State County Fair Grounds, 8-1-89. (Sent to us by Lucinda Hinkle, Hillsboro, Oregon)

"The people who stayed home Tuesday because of the rain were the ones who lost. Juice Newton gave a fantastic performance. We'll have her back another time. That's one gal that really knows how to sing." (Wade)

"Like her music, Juice Newton is honest. Since her platinum album 'Juice' broke her into the top of the Country and Pop Charts in 1981, she's brought emotional depth to the Country-Pop Winner's Circle with hits like Queen Of Hearts, etc. She picks the music she wants to sing and then gives it her all in whatever style best fits the material. THE METHOD WORKS! IT HAS INTEGRITY! She'll bring her magic to the Celebrity Stage at the Washington County Fair Grounds August 1st."

(From JNFC Member, Lucinda Hinkle, Hillsboro, Oregon)

"Dear Juice, thank you for coming to Washington County Fair. It's too bad you had to perform in our Oregon Sunshine. We are sorry we didn't get to meet you after the performance... that's one part of our dream that got washed down the drain with the rain. The rain not only soaked us, but for sure, it soaked our spirits. The Hillsboro Argus lifted them a lot when they wrote such a nice article about you. I have hand-delivered a personal thank you to the Hillsboro Argus for all the write-ups about you before you got here. We are so deeply honored by how you sound to others around us; your singing really lifts people up! It does have integrity!"

-4-

Lucinda Hinkle

Happy Halloween To All You Dear Trick Or Treaters!! Have fun, but be careful!

Jessica Ann Goodspeed enjoying Halloween in her own cornpatch last year, 1988!

A SPECIAL QUOTABLE QUOTE

"Thanks very much for the copy of Juice's itinerary. You will be happy to know that on two days' planning, my kids and I jumped in the car and headed for Franklin. We arrived late Saturday night after a 450 mile trip, stayed overnight in Franklin, and went to the concert on Sunday. The promoter of the show was amazed that we had traveled that far to see Juice perform. This is the first time I've ever seen Juice perform, although I've been a fan for several years. I can say without hesitation, that the trip was well worth while. While I love her music on tapes and albums, they do not do the lady justice! Her talent, range and rapport with the audience are something that has to be seen. The lady was jumping, twisting and performing with the other members of her band that would do a teenager proud. For a soon to be mother, it was just amazing. She also has a unique and valuable characteristic of coming across as someone you would like to have as a neighbor. Many of the so-called 'super stars' of country music, however talented, leave one satisfied with listening to their music, but Juice presents more of a 'girl next door' personality. Very refreshing!"

JOSEPH STIVERS
CORYDON, INDIANA

"Dear Juice Newton: I want to tell you a small story. It is about a little boy of 13 years. The year was 1983 and this boy was in the 7th grade. He had friends, a lot of them, in fact. But he had very little self-esteem and virtually no confidence. These personality faults along with feelings of unwantedness, aloneness, and fear of the future, constituted a suicide attempt . . . a thankfully unsuccessful one. The boy's life was bleak and undefined. He found himself lost and washed up at 13.

This little boy's escape was in the walls of his bedroom, where he could lock the door and find some kind of sanctuary in his record collection. He enjoyed listening to his albums, all 5 of them. It was one of his few pleasures in his then-pathetic life.

This boy, to this day feels he owes a part of himself to the singer of those records, in part for helping him cope with the hard times and also for being there when he needed her voice to soothe and comfort him.

Today, 6 long bitter-sweet years later, that boy who almost died by his own hand has recently graduated high school and will be entering college in the fall in hopes of becoming a psychologist or a school teacher.

He has become something that he once was not . . . happy!

The boy is (and was) me. The heroine in disguise as a singer is you, Ms Newton!

Thanks for helping me through. I'll always be listening."

Respectfully Yours,
(Joseph Stivers)

Note: When I began putting the newsletter together in my mind, I wrote to Joseph asking his permission to reprint his letter. (Here is his reply) (M.Y.)

"JNFC . . . Thanks so much for the spectacular packet of photos and newsletters. I'm proud to be a member!

And, about my first letter to Ms. Newton, I would like very much for others to know how much Juice has really helped me.

Keep up the wonderful work!"

Sincerely,
Joseph Stivers

An amazing tidbit for all our 2-year-olds.

"Juice gave a friend of hers in Nashville the Ain't Gonna Cry cassette. Now her friend's little 2-year-old, Calli Moore, knows every word of Goin' To Work by heart and sings it!" (Nashville, TN)

Your Outstanding Responses To The LP Ain't Gonna Cry.

1. "I just found Juice's new album! I couldn't believe the trouble I had finding it, all I could find was the CD and cassette. Finally, I found one and it was the only one they had! I got it home and played it and I must tell you this is her finest piece of work yet! Every song on this album is hit worthy! It is simply spectacular! She shows ultra-professionalism on this one. This is not to say I'm at all disappointed with her other work, but I'm a music lover who loves to hear a good back beat to a beautiful voice, and on "Ain't Gonna Cry" I got more than I could ask for on one album!"

(Bob Leonard, Jr., Duncannon, PA.)

2. "I just had to write a quick note to say Juice's new album must be the finest work of any artist ever! I can't stop playing it! The station I listen to has been playing several of her new songs and they 'spotlighted' her new album two weeks ago, playing the entire album in one night."

(Michael Margulis, Fort Bragg, CA.)

3. "The woman is pure magic. She transcends the 'Country' label as easily as the Starship Enterprise transcends lightspeed, and Ain't Gonna Cry once again proves it. I love the whole album!"

(David R. Wood, Knoxville, TN.)

4. "Her new album is fantastic! The song Otha and Johnny Pierce wrote is addictive and very exciting. They really outdid themselves on this one. All the songs are good but that one is GREAT! I don't care what Juice sings, I just want to hear her sing."

(Ellen A Lloyd, Aransas Pass, Texas)

5. "This is a thank you for the many years of enjoyment I've had listening to your music. I am always checking out albums, and one album I checked out in the summer of 1982 was 'Juice'. The first time I played it I was completely overtaken. It was the best album I had ever heard. From the moment I heard that album I became a Juice Newton fan! I have her new album Ain't Gonna Cry, and again, she has released a truly remarkable album. I am truly impressed and at the present time can't hear it enough!

(Carl J. Werner, Minnetonka, MN.)

6. "I got my copy of (album & cassette) Ain't Gonna Cry July 5th and have almost worn the tape out already! What an excellent, excellent, excellent album! It is definately Juice's best album in a while. The songs are all wonderful tunes and Josh Leo and Juice did a great job together."

(Bill Nelson, Freeville, N.Y.)

7. "I finally got the new album! This one, for sure, deserves airplay! Juice is at her rockabilly best! Please give Otha another compliment for 'Say You'll

Be Mine'. Juice really deserves credit with this album. Juice, if you read this, your fans will continue to buy your records, see your concerts, no matter what, because to Juice Newton fans, the best selling records and the best female vocalist is JUICE NEWTON!"
(Paul Fowler, Escondido, California)

8. "Well, it just hit 12:06 a.m. but this won't wait! I picked up my copy of Ain't Gonna Cry about 3 hours ago and am on my 2nd complete run through, what is, without a doubt, another spectacular album! These are all sturdy songs, both lyrically and musically, and Juice's voice caresses every note with a silky, yet often bluesy, smooth quality that's unbeatable! This album flat cooks! (Tim Phillips, Tucker, Georgia)

9. "I just bought Ain't Gonna Cry and I have to admit it is your best album yet! I love your remake renditions of Goin' To Work, (And) Then He Kissed Me. They sound better than the original versions. Also, I recently won at an auction the album Juice Newton and Silver Spur (RCA) press kit from June 1975. It came with a 4-page biography and a b/w photo of Juice, Tom Kealey and Otha Young, in a picture cover folder. This is truly one piece of memorabilia that I will treasure the most." (William Doynics, Jr., Freeland, PA.)

10. "It's great! I purchased the Ain't Gonna Cry CD on 7-7 and a salute goes to Juice Newton & Company on an outstanding recording. I felt the various musical styles and song selections made this album what it is and that is: it's nice to listen to. Thank you Juice for another fine recording of your sweet voice and thanks to all others involved.

(Dan Pickert, Spring Hill, Kansas)

11. "I love the cassette Ain't Gonna Cry! My favorites would have to be When Love Comes Around The Bend, (which should have been a big hit) and The Moment You Were Mine. What's wrong with that record company? What's their problem? I know if they let the fans decide on what to do Juice would have had many hits released! JUICE IS THE BEST!"
(Val Stoddard, Amsterdam, N.Y.)

12. I played the album Ain't Gonna Cry twice today and it's the Juice of old! This is the type of music she should stay with and do more of. It looks like this album won't get any promotion either, and it's a good album! FAST GOOD MUSIC!

(Jim White, Independence, MO.)

13. "The new album is very good and they can be proud of it! I enjoyed the one Otha Young/Johnny Pierce wrote, Say You'll Be Mine. I like the deep sounding guitar in it. It reminds me of the Duane Eddy sound. The pulsating harmony reminds me of the song "Glad All Over" put out by The Dave Clark Five back in the mid-60's. I hope Juice doesn't change her style at all. It's great the way it is!

(Wayne Godwin, Columbia, Maryland)

14. "Hey, Maxine - glad to be aboard for another year! Juice's new LP is a killer! I love it!"

(Dave Pemberton, Marshall, MI.)

15. "I just bought the latest tape and it's something else! I think this is the best so far. That Angel is getting better all the time. I just keep playing it over and over. If Juice doesn't get some award for this album, I'll be very surprised. Every song is so good! We must also give Otha credit who has a lot to do with it.

(Rick Mundt, Lake Preston, S.D.)

16. "Congratulations on the terrific new album! I have every album you have released from the 1st to this last, Ain't Gonna Cry, and, in my opinion, the new album is by far your best! I'm glad you had a different producer on this album, it added many fresh angles to your talent. Goin' To Work is one of your most pleasant songs ever. I'm Only Walkin' gives your fans a glimpse into your days of folk, (And) Then He Kissed Me, provides just the right amount of nostalgia to balance out the album, which is undoubtedly unlike anything I've ever heard! (Joseph Stivers, Corydon IN)

17. "I want to thank you for Juice's new album. I've taken it to my radio mate (1 of many friends in radio in S.A.), Henk Jansen! He now has 3 programmers, Tuesday evenings (5 p.m. to 7 p.m.), Saturday International Sounds Limited, and every 4th Saturday night (10 p.m. to 1 a.m., Sunday). 5PBA-FM, (courtesy of Henk), are always thrilled when I take Juice's recordings to the studio as they are the only ones here in South Australia with a copy." (Sent to us by dedicated JNFC Member, Howard S. Bronson, (noted songwriter) Elizabeth, S. Australia). (Thank you Howard for all the airplay Juice is getting in Elizabeth, S. A., and thanks a million to Henk Jansen!!!) (Staff)

A special letter from a special new 13-yr-old JNFC Member (8-6-89)

"I love this album and it's the best birthday gift I received! My mother and father enjoy it too! I had trouble in deciding which songs I liked the best but I finally decided after listening to it about 9 or 10 times. This is the order I placed the songs on Juice's new album:

(And) Then He Kissed Me
When Love Comes Around The Bend
I'm Only Walkin,
Gonna Find You
Say You'll Be Mine
You're Making It Easy
Ain't Gonna Cry No More
Goin' To Work
The Moment You Were Mine

I had a friend over the other day and we were noticing how Juice is totally wrinkle-free, so pretty and natural looking. Then we looked at some more pictures and we noticed that she looks younger and younger year by year. This is quite amazing! I saw her on a TV Show (USA Today) and she looked great and Jessica Ann is quite adorable! Thanks for taking time to read this among millions of other letters sent by other fans.

Juice is #1, she was yesterday and still is today!

Love,
Cindee Sharp
Round Mountain, Texas

(Note) I felt it only right to list Cindee's song preferences from the new LP because she listened to it 9 or 10 times before making her decisions. This took time and discipline! However, we are not listing all the song preferences we've received, even though we enjoy doing this. It just isn't any fun when the album isn't going anywhere. You must be aware, by now, that no further singles will be released from the album. (M.Y.)

I am very pleased to introduce Brenda Jenkins to you as my new assistant and co-helper at the fan club. It was Brenda who helped me through the long, painful recovery from my injury. For four months, she was my arms and my legs and without her help I would not have recovered as well as I have. Brenda is the sister of Barbara Young, the wife of my grandson, Barry. (Barbara and Barry are Kristi's parents.) and Brenda is Timmy's mom. (the youngsters who wasted the battery listening to the cassette). I am thankful for Brenda's assistance because I really need help. No one could take Edith Tells place, but there are thousands of miles between us now. Needless to say, I have missed the help she so willingly and generously gave the fan club. We had 5 great years working together with the fan club. and we enjoyed it thoroughly! I'm looking forward now to working with Brenda, who, I'm confident, will do her dead-level-best to get the job done, and what's very reassuring is, she says, "she really likes it." Welcome Brenda!

JUICE IN CONCERT AT CENTER STAGE, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE! July 6, 1989

Juice, stunning in a lovely soft pink dressy dress, performing at Center Stage in Nashville. We got a call from Nashville telling us this was a b e a u t i f u l concert! Juice was at her best, and her band (looking sharp,) was at their best! (Wish we all could have seen this one, don't you?)

In closing:

Due to Juice's pregnancy, and the lack of promotion for the new album, there hasn't been a lot of news this summer, but, with Juice and her management now in negotiations with undisclosed labels, we can look forward to a new baby!, a new album!, and an exciting tour in 1990!

We are all disappointed, after such a long wait and such a fine album, that RCA elected to pass over the Ain't Gonna Cry album. But regardless of the ups and downs of the music business, the JNFC is proud to play a part in the magic and inspiration that Juice's music brings to thousands of people all over the world.

We will bring you up to date on Juice's activities at Christmastime, and, in the meantime, we are thankful for your unwavering loyalty and support of Juice and her music!

Gratefully for Juice,

Love
