Otha Young Tribute

This August marks the ninth anniversary of Otha Young's passing. Otha was not only most kind to fans and never seemed to tire from helping others.

Otha whose first name is Robert, lived in Tarzana California with his wife Brenda and daughter Makena. His love for his family and the music industry fulfilled every aspect of his life and brought so much happiness.

Juice and Otha met at a club in Los Gatos California called the "Grog & Sirloin" and their compatibilities and love for music was obvious. They were an unbeatable musical team.

The early years were very creative for Otha. He wrote many of the songs Juice recorded as a solo artist and with the band 'Silver Spur.' In 1975, Otha wrote a song that was featured on the very first album. The song Juice would record again on her break out album "Juice." The song? "The Sweetest Thing (I've Ever Known). This became Juice's first number one country hit.

Through it all, Otha never lost the creative drive and this continued throughout his life. The latter years saw Otha manage Juice's career. He was not able to write as much then. When I asked him about this he told me that, "There doesn't seem to be as much as time to write like there was before."

Otha's passion kept him going when he started his battle with cancer. His endurance helped him to prevail in the shows which brought him so much joy.

The very last time I saw Otha perform was in Palm Dale California. He used to always come and find me and we would chat. When he didn't come out, I had an "odd" feeling. Otha came out with Juice and the band and performed but sat on a stool between songs which he never had done before.

Unfortunately, not long after this performance, Otha passed away. The lessons & impressions that are learned by knowing a person sometimes do not become obvious until they are gone. Otha had the ability to always see the best in people. He always treated every single person with respect and expressed his gratitude. Those are just two of the lessons & impressions that I take to heart.

Remembering Otha is wonderful to all that knew him. The reflections of his impact on people and Juice's career and music is simply put, amazing.

Myself as Juice and Brenda, Makena and the band are better people for knowing Otha. We all miss him dearly but will never allow ourselves to forget him or his unwavering sincere personality.

Play the guitar in your heavenly band Otha!!

Love and Admiration from us all.
