Gone Fishing

I've finished life's chores assigned to me,
So put me on a boat headed out to sea.
Please send along my fishing pole
For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.

Where every day is a day to fish,
To fill your heart with every wish.
Don't worry, or feel sad for me,
I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.

We will miss each other for awhile,
But you will come and bring your smile.
That won't be long you will see,
Till we're together you and me.

To all of those that think of me,
Be happy as I go out to sea.
If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'.

Obituary

Mr. William Donnell Carter was born on January 9, 1951 in Winston-Salem, NC to the late Zelma C. White. He attended schools in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County System.

He worked for fifteen years at North Carolina Baptist Hospital and for over fifteen years at Lowe's Home Improvement.

"Billy" loved fishing and was a faithful Pittsburg Steelers fan.

He passed away after a period of illness on August 31, 2021 at Forsyth Medical Center. In addition to his mother, he was preceded in death by his brother, Earl Lee Carter; aunt, Lucille Slater; and cousin, Jacqueline Redd.

Left to cherish fond memories of him are: his sisters, Carolyn Carter (James) Parker and Lynette (Danyell) Jordan; son, William D. Hill; and special nieces and nephews.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
