

STEWPOUT

FAITH MEETING NEEDS IN OUR COMMUNITY

OUR MISSION

Stewpot Community Services provides compassionate assistance, at no charge, to people in need of physical and spiritual nourishment. Through our ministries, we serve people who are hungry, poor, and homeless, offering food, shelter, clothing, mentoring, care and concern. At Stewpot, we believe that we all are fed through our fellowship with one another and that we are all stronger when we are offering our gifts on behalf of others.

OUR VISION

- Provide food, clothing, shelter, and nurturing care to men, women, and children experiencing homelessness and/or deep poverty
- Provide volunteer opportunities to those with a passion for service
- Recognize the giftedness in everyone who walks through our doors
- Affirm the value and uniqueness of every person as a child of God
- Uphold the importance of local ownership and control of our ministries
- Affirm the importance of inter-faith and ecumenical cooperation

PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Billy Brumfield Shelter for Men

The Billy Brumfield House provides emergency shelter for men seeking a safe, warm place to sleep. The program also offers a drug-work transitional program and a special needs program.

601.948.2864

Children & Teen Programs

Stewpot operates an after-school program for both children and teens during the school year in addition to a summer camp each year.

601.948.2941

Clothing Closet

The Clothing Closet provides quality clothing for all who come to Stewpot. The Clothing Closet is stocked with clothing donated from residents of the Jackson Metro area.

601.353.2759

Community Kitchen

The Community Kitchen provides a noontime meal to anyone- no questions asked- seven days a week, 365 days a year.

601.353.2759

Food Pantry

The Stewpot Food Pantry serves over 600 people a month. Each family is given a four-day supply of groceries to cover the entire household.

601.353.2759

Matt's House Shelter for Women & Children

Matt's House Emergency Shelter for Women and Children provides shelter for homeless women and children who have no other place to go. The residents receive an evening meal and a light breakfast in addition to a safe place to sleep for the night.

601.948.2873

Meals on Wheels

Each weekday, staff and volunteers make and deliver plate lunches to 70 elderly, ill, and disabled people who cannot make it to lunch at Stewpot.

601.353.2759

Opportunity Center Day Shelter

A "home base for the homeless" during daytime hours, The Opportunity Center offers community resources such as laundry, mail services, and computer access. The Opportunity Center also operates as an emergency shelter during the cold, winter months.

601.949.3540

Rapid Rehousing

Stewpot's Rapid Rehousing program helps people move from homelessness into stable housing by providing short-term rental subsidies. Case managers help participants find the support they need, including job training and mental health resources, to stay housed permanently.

601.949.9262

Street Outreach

Stewpot Outreach Workers go out into the community and form relationships with people experiencing homelessness, connecting them to resources and services available to them.

601.746.3037

St. Dominic's Health Clinic

In partnership with Stewpot, St. Dominic's Health Services operates a Community Health Clinic providing primary care to low-income families and homeless individuals whose needs are not being met by mainstream healthcare.

601.944.0091

TEMPORARY EMERGENCY SHELTER

In partnership with the City of Jackson, Stewpot operates a temporary transitional shelter for people experiencing homelessness who are working through the process of finding stable housing.

601.353.2759

