

A Virtuous Woman

<sup>11</sup> The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

<sup>12</sup> She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

<sup>26</sup> She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

<sup>27</sup> She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

<sup>30</sup> Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.

<sup>31</sup> Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Proverbs 31:
10-12; 26-31

The Obituary

Magdalene Fleming entered this life on August 20, 1928 as the only child of Erie Gooden and Pete Harris. She was born in Clifton, South Carolina.

She attended school in Spartanburg, South Carolina and studied for her GED at Paisley High School and Forsyth Technical College.

Preceded in death by her mother, Erie Patterson, husband John A. Fleming and son John A. Robinson, Sr.

She leaves to cherish her memory, three sons, Willie and Ben Robinson, Sr., Tyrone Fleming and step-son Alfred Coleman, two daughters, Bobby Robinson and Mary Hargraves, eleven grandchildren, twenty-three great grandchildren and nine great-great grandchildren.

A dedicated employee at Winston-Salem State University in Moore Hall and O'Kelly Library, she retired after years of faithful service.

Magdalene Fleming committed herself to her church, family, community and physical fitness.

She has been a faithful member of Carver Road Church of Christ for sixty-five years. She served ten years on the Beautification Committee helping to edify the Church and seven years with the Clothing Bank assisting those in need.

She loved family vacation on cruises, to Hilton Head, Savannah Georgia, and Williamsburg, Virginia. Spending a week with children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren was the delight of her life. She traveled to Rochester, NY, Charlotte, NC and McDonough, GA to watch her grandchildren and great grandchildren graduate from high school and college. She loved the YMCA and went five days a week until her illness prevented her from going.

Magdalene Fleming committed her life to serving her neighborhood and community. Her affiliations and service included working the polls during elections and working on numerous voter registration drives. She was also an organizer for the National Night Out Campaign as well as President of the Jolly Traveler's Club and supplied food to those less fortunate.

Keep My Legacy Alive!!

I lived my life with integrity; I strived to serve Christ with all my being. My word was my bond, What I said I meant, A life serving God is a life well spent.

I have no regrets just a request. Keep my Legacy Alive!

I had a good life, one full of love. God blessed me with a family truly sent from above. Family taking care of Family was a beautiful sight to see; spending time with each of you meant everything to me.

I have no regrets just a request, Keep my Legacy Alive!

God gave me 92 years; I could not ask for anything more. Now I can take my rest and be with my Lord

I have no regrets just a request, Keep my Legacy Alive!

To my children; My sons be forthright, generous strong men, my daughters continue to be loving, virtuous women. My grandchildren, great grands, and great- great grands too. Remember my words actions and deeds, I am the root you are the tree. Heed to my words; be punctual, purposeful, practical and thrifty. Trust in God and you will have plenty. These values I leave with you, put God first and He will do the rest but be prepared for there will be a test.

I have no regrets just a request, Keep my Legacy Alive!

My church family and friends, I loved you until the very end. My prayer was that you would see Christ in me, the woman in Proverbs 31:26 is what I strived to be "She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness". Listen to God's word you have been taught what to do. Let God be God and He will see you through. Trust in the Lord, live for Christ, serve God with all your might! We who believe know this is not the end. Trust in the Lord, and we'll see each other again.

I have no regrets just a request Keep my Legacy Alive!

In Loving Memory of Magdalene Fleming,

A woman of God who was devoted to the Lord's church, her family and friends.
