CHILDREN'S CHARITIES

December 3, 2004 and 4, 2004 Juice participated in the fund raiser entitled "Carols by Candlelight." This year the beneficiaries were the Make-A-Wish Foundation of San Diego, San Diego Center for Children and Reading Recovery. Please visit these charities on the web at <http://www.wish.org/> and <http://www.r2c2.org/>.

The "Carols by Candlelight" event was held at the California Center for The Arts in Escondido, California. Escondido is a city north of San Diego. To read about this beautiful facility please visit their website at <http://www.artcenter.org/>.

The stage was beautiful. There were four big evergreens trimmed with snow and lights from top to bottom. A backdrop of a pine forest accented the snow on the stage floor. When an artist would perform a Christmas song, it would begin to snow on the stage.

The event featured the following artists...

The Beat Boys
Juice Newton
Kim Carnes
Buck Howdy
Little River Band
BJ Thomas

Juice performed second wearing a black outfit with a red scarf. This was Juice's first appearance for "Carols by Candlelight" in seven years. The first song Juice sang was solo. She opened with "Christmas Needs Love To Be Christmas." After this opener Otha Young and Jay Cawley came out on stage and they performed the acoustic rendition of "Angel of The Morning." This was very well received by the audience. Juice's next song was done unaccompanied as she and Otha and Jay sang "Queen of Hearts" and "Love's Been A Little Bit Hard On Me." Juice finished her segment with the holiday classic recorded by Brenda Lee. This of course is "Rocking Around The Christmas Tree."

The "Carols by Candlelight" duration was three hours. Immediately after the last song, everyone was asked to meet in the courtyard and sing "Silent Night" along with the artists. The entire audience went outside and as they entered the courtyard of the center, they were handed a candle.

Once the artists appeared, they started the lighting of the candles. When everyone had their candles lit, Silent Night was sung while everyone stood holding the candles up towards the sky.

Paul Fowler President of the Juice Newton Fan Club attended this event. "I was very touched by the performances of each artist but more so of the warmth that was felt when "we" the audience sang "Silent Night." This was very moving. I will attend this event next year and I strongly encourage others to as well."

JUICE A ROCKY MOUNTAIN HIGH

September 17, 2004 brought Juice to Central City Colorado. This is a mountain town high in the Rockies. Juice performed at the Fortune Casino.

JNFC members were present at this show. Paul Fowler President of the JNFC was present and was delighted to meet these members. The members included Dan Crum and Amanda Cooper and Bill Nelson. Several new members signed up from the show. Dan Crum was kind enough to send pictures of this concert. They can be found at the JNFC website www.juicenewtonfanclub.com under the TOUR PICTURES section. Thank you Dan, it's much appreciated.

At the end of the concert, Juice started performing the "Queen of Hearts" and immediately, JNFC member Amanda Cooper and her party ran up to the stage and started dancing. Before long, they had the entire audience standing up clapping and dancing to this song. Amanda was in high spirits as this was her bridal shower.

After the concert, Juice stayed and signed autographs and took pictures until every last fan had received what they wanted.
