Brothers and Sisters,

The Holy Spirit is indispensable to Church, Christianity and Christians. No Spirit, no Church, no Christians! In today's gospel Jesus promises us: "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you."

Over the centuries people have tried to impose rules and controls on who is an insider and who is an outsider, who belongs and who is excluded. Jesus was very clear in his teaching about who is in control. It is the Holy Spirit who judges and guides not only the leaders but all the faithful. Our attempts at exclusion and control are according to the world, not the Spirit.

Today's readings all contain teachings for us as individuals, but much more for us as the body of Christ in the world. The early Church struggled to discern between true and false teaching and to preserve the community from all attempts to divert attention from Jesus' unequivocal teaching about welcoming sinners into the kingdom. While it is important that we continue to discern where we are being led in spirit and truth, Pope Francis has been equally unequivocal in his insistence that we cannot turn the Church into a membership only club, where those on the inside wear their virtue like a medal. In the early Church, sinners would be excluded from the community for years. Every attempt we make to separate those we consider sinners from participation in the gathered community is similar in spirit to this ancient excluding attitude.

Our first reading from Acts is an illustration of this. It tells of an argument in the early Church about whether those who were not of the Jewish faith should have strict rules about membership being imposed upon them. The apostles rely on the Holy Spirit to guide them as to which Mosaic practices are necessary for all Christians. In some communities today we see this attempt to control admittance to the sacraments. The Church is a "field hospital" not a "fortress". The sacraments are medicine for those who are sick, not a reward for those who are virtuous.

It is part of the challenge of discernment that we have to try to balance the teachings of the Church with Christ's call to freedom, mercy and compassion. The 2015 Synod on the Family wrestled with these issues as it looked at the exclusion from the sacraments of people who are divorced and remarried or those in same sex relationships. There is no easy answer to these questions, but the teaching of the gospels is quite clear, as is Pope Francis' stated preference for a "bruised, hurting and dirty" Church.

The story from Acts serves to remind us that we are guests at Christ's table at the Eucharistic feast, not hosts or bouncers, controlling who is welcome. Christ himself is the feast and the one who issues the invitations. Every member of the Church is a sinner, welcomed by Christ's compassion and mercy. The Spirit, whose coming Christ promises in today's gospel, brings peace and drives out fear. The fear that drives attempts to exclude and control, whether it be society's many prejudices like racism and sexism, or within the Church when we judge others to be "outsiders".

Final thought: The challenge for us is to look at the root of our judgments and to overcome prejudice with courage and fear with freedom.

In God's house, all are welcome.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

"The tragic U.S. Supreme Court decision of Roe v. Wade has allowed for the destruction of millions of innocent lives through legalized abortion. The Supreme Court is now in the process of deciding a case that has the potential to weaken, or even overturn, Roe v. Wade. As the Court prepares to release its decision in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, Christians across the country are uniting in prayer for this important case.

Society as a whole must respect, defend and promote the dignity of every human person, at every moment and in every condition of that person's life. May we commit ourselves to urgent prayer and fasting, that the Court may act to uphold the dignity of unborn human life."

We pray to the Lord, May the Supreme Court act to restore legal protection for the lives of unborn children by overturning the tragic decision of Roe v. Wade.

Month of Mary

THE MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary,
 that never was it known
 that anyone who fled to thy protection,
 implored thy help,
 or sought thy intercession,
 was left unaided.
 Inspired by this confidence
 I fly unto thee,
 O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.
 To thee do I come,
 before thee I stand,
 sinful and sorrowful.
 O Mother of the Word Incarnate,
 despise not my petitions,
 but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

LA PAZ

El sexto domingo de Pascua nos acerca a la fiesta de Pentecostés y a la venida del Espíritu Santo en la Iglesia primitiva. El Evangelio de hoy describe a Jesús en la Última Cena, anunciando la llegada del Espíritu a la comunidad de Jesús. Jesús combina la promesa del Espíritu con el don de la paz a sus discípulos. Prevé que la comunidad debe estar cimentada en su amor, que proporciona la paz, para afrontar el tumulto de la Crucifixión y, posteriormente, las pruebas de la Iglesia primitiva. Enraizada en Jesús, la comunidad puede abrirse al Espíritu, que la guiará, recordará y renovará continuamente en su vida en común. El don de la paz de Jesús no es una paz mundana con la que los poderosos aplastan la oposición. No es una paz complaciente o privada. La paz de Jesús, en cambio, busca y trabaja por la paz en todo el mundo, guiada por el Espíritu.

UN LIDERAZGO RESPONSABLE

El pasaje de hoy de los Hechos recoge el inicio y la conclusión de lo que se conoció como el Concilio de Jerusalén. Merece la pena estudiar todo Hechos 15, cuyo objetivo es ofrecer un ejemplo de liderazgo responsable para la Iglesia en general. Hubo un conflicto sustancial dentro de la comunidad sobre lo que es necesario para la unidad en la diversa comunidad de judíos y gentiles. Podemos observar algunas características clave de las acciones de los líderes.

Los líderes reconocieron la realidad de un conflicto importante sin minimizarlo. Recibieron y honraron plenamente las diversas experiencias de personas de diferentes orígenes. Trabajaron con una estructura de autoridad aceptada y un proceso para avanzar hacia la resolución. Se comprometieron a discernir la acción y la voluntad del Espíritu, con un profundo respeto por el testimonio sobre cómo estaba actuando el Espíritu. Evitaron imponer cargas innecesarias a nadie. Y después, siguieron observando la acción continua del Espíritu a medida que se aplicaba la decisión.

¿QUÉ ES LO ESENCIAL?

Las cuestiones que sopesó el Concilio de Jerusalén en nuestro pasaje de los Hechos estaban relacionadas con la circuncisión como requisito, y con la comunión en la mesa. Una fuerte tradición teológica sostiene que las prácticas tradicionales eran esenciales, y la comunidad buscaba genuinamente mantener la continuidad con las raíces de su fe. La observación de Pedro sobre cómo el Espíritu estaba actuando activamente en medio de ellos señaló a los líderes una nueva dirección. A continuación, Santiago les recordó que la tradición bíblica también apuntaba a acoger plenamente a los gentiles en la comunidad de Dios.

Es un profundo reto para los líderes de nuestras propias parroquias cuando se enfrentan a cuestiones que pueden fracturar una comunidad. ¿Qué es esencial y qué no lo es? ¿Qué estamos llamados a abrazar o a dejar de lado? Reconocer el conflicto y trabajar para resolverlo es una función esencial para nuestras parroquias, porque Cristo nos llama a vivir en unidad. Estamos llamados a abrir nuestros corazones, extraer nuestra tradición y observar la actividad del Espíritu.

MEMORARE

Acuérdate, oh piadosísima Virgen María, que jamás se ha oído decir, que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protección, implorando tu asistencia, y reclamando tu socorro, haya sido abandonado por tí.

Animado con esa confianza, a ti acudo, Madre, la más excesiva de las vírgenes; a ti vengo, a ti me acerco, yo, peccador contrito.

Madre del Verbo, no desprecies mis palabras, antes bien escúchalas y acógelas benignamente. Amen.
