IBTA supports Warren County Career Center with a Training Partnership

Miami, Florida - 3rd March, 2014. The International Business Training Association (IBTA®) and Warren County Career Center have partnered in Lebanon, Ohio to expand the offering of the Certified Business Professional (CBP) Courses and its Global Certification.

This makes the global standard for essential business skills available to many more career-minded individuals looking for new employment or advancement in their current employment, as well as to other businesses in the region who are looking to enhance their current employee's skills.

Warren County Career Center will be a premier provider of specialized Business and Managerial Training. Warren County Career Center will be helping Individuals as well as organizations improve productivity and service standards by helping to develop quality systems which inspire higher service standards, and which motivate management and front-line personnel to consistently maintain the highest levels of organizational productivity.

Warren County Career Center has gained access to the internationally recognized business skills training program - the Certified Business Professional (CBP™), developed by the International Business Training Association (IBTA) and taught around the globe. CBP Business Skills Training has become the standard in validating an employee's knowledge and skill in the most current and best business practices. The CBP training includes short, structured courses in Customer Service, Sales, Leadership, Business Communication, Business Etiquette,

Business Management, Project Management, Marketing, Computer Technology Specialist, Tourism & Hospitality and several others.

The Certified Business Professional Courses (CBP) are short, structured training courses. “By offering the Certified Business Professional business skills training, Warren County Career Center is now poised to train a myriad of individuals in international business skills making those who receive the CBP distinction more employable. This partnership between IBTA and Warren County Career Center is a direct response to the growing needs of the community. The CBP business skills training is structured and customized to provide optimal learning opportunities by providing real-world business principles in the classroom. Warren County Career Center with a supportive environment and trained Certified Instructors (CBPCI) will be able to manage the large influx of individuals needing to receive this business skills training which is so essential for improving the chances of obtaining needed employment to those in need of a good job, and also furthering the skills of those currently employed that are looking for further advancement in today’s global economy.” said, Dario Morell, Vice President of, IBTA.

“We chose Warren County Career Center to offer this training because their Certified Instructors, are experienced with the challenges facing businesses today,” concluded Mr. Morell.

Warren County Career Center understands the need for individuals to gain experience in business skills. Warren County Career Center is excited to join the IBTA Team in the journey of service to individuals and businesses in need throughout the region through quality training. It is a challenge but the key is success and Warren County Career Center see’s the results coming. Warren County Career Center is so enthusiastic that IBTA has recognized its strategic position for the delivery of this high quality training and the corresponding Certification Exams.

By Warren County Career Center offering the CBP Courses, Warren County Career Center feels that every individual, from the career starter to the seasoned business professional, that needs to validate their skills in the workplace, will have a chance to do so in the Lebanon, OH region. We also anticipate industry veterans to renew their commitment to striving for excellence in this dynamic world of business. Our goal is for the Ohio area enterprises to recognize the importance of having CBP trained employees for their continued growth & development and to have them on their staff as a result of this partnership with IBTA.

The new global economy requires business professionals to stay at the forefront of all aspects of business, using both the technical and the soft-skills applications that are so vitally important to any company. When an individual is trained in CBP's business skills practices, they receive practical knowledge and skills, enabling them to surpass any current industry standard. The CBP distinction really does define the business professional and in today's World economy all businesses will require this type of validation of skills in the near future. This training and certification program is a must for any individual or corporation to stay afloat in today's market.
