Dobi Style Chicken

"best tasting chicken this side of the Allegheny"

That is what our customers are telling us

Dobi only uses fresh chicken and immediately goes into a marinating process. After marinate, the chicken is either dusted with our signature spices and pressure fried to a golden brown or seasoned with our signature dry rub and smoke roasted with our signature smoke. Our traditional process produces a crispy outer layer while preserving the moisture in the meat. Our smoke roasted process produces a crisp smokey outer with tender succulent meat. Once you taste either of our chicken styles, you'll long for it again and again, it's that good! Dobi's chicken packages include the breast, leg, and thigh. Wings are sold separately by the dozen and half dozen, prepared in the same manner as our chicken.
