IBTA Releases 3rd Edition of Project Management Course

Austin, TX, November 20, 2021 – The International Business Training Association (IBTA), sponsor of the Certified Business Professional (CBP) certification, has now released the 3rd edition of its popular Project Management certification course. This updated version addresses all the most recent developments and challenges in the project management sector.

The release of this new edition is a response to the rapidly changing economic and professional landscape that faces business men and women today. IBTA remains committed to staying up to date with the current needs and trends in the business world. The updated edition of the Project Management certification course includes information on cloud-based project management technology, and how project managers can successfully integrate technology into their systems to promote communication and collaboration.

The 3rd edition of the CBP Project Management course is geared towards equipping professionals with the skills and tools necessary to successfully schedule, track, and deliver projects according to specifications. This updated edition includes additional information about estimating timelines, developing tasks and subtasks, and assigning responsibilities to team members. Students will also learn about various project management software programs and how to implement them into business operations.

President of IBTA, Kirby Narine, commented on the updated Project Management course “The 3rd edition of the Project Management certification course is a timely update in response to recent developments and changes in the project management sector. We wanted to ensure that all of our Training Partners and students around the world are equipped with the most updated, relevant information in the project management space. This update is in keeping with IBTA’s commitment to educate and empower business professionals globally with the skills and resources necessary to excel in their chosen industries.” The 3rd edition of the Project Management certification course is now available to all of IBTA’s Authorized Training Partners.

IBTA continues to support business professionals around the world by providing the latest information and best practices in a variety of fields to promote growth and learning in the business sector. IBTA is committed to providing access to industry-leading educational material to motivated professionals globally.
