

RE:DEFINE

HEALING TRAUMA IN NATIVE AMERICAN COMMUNITIES

SEPT. 17, 2018
10AM - 3PM

DINE & DISCUSS

WHITE EAGLE, OKLAHOMA

TOPICS

- + Identifying how historical trauma effects Native American communities today
- + The current state of mental & emotional health in youth & adults
- + Comparative dynamics of Native American home and family structure, past & present
- + Explore proactive solutions for healing in Native American communities
- + Restoring integrity to the Native American family structure
- + Implementing trauma informed care as a standard practice
- + Revitalizing cultural values & disintegrating trauma
- + Redefining cultural identity thru self determination

FREE TO ALL TRIBAL MEMBERS & LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED!

PONCA TRIBE OF OKLAHOMA / TRIBAL AFFAIRS DINING HALL

20 WHITE EAGLE DRIVE / PONCA CITY, OK

For more info, please contact:

Crystal Springer / Pathways Program (580) 352 - 2606

Monique Hudson / Domestic Violence Program (580) 491 - 2538

SPONSORED BY: PONCA TRIBE OF OKLAHOMA PATHWAYS & DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROGRAMS