

Flower Bearers

Pall Bearers

Granddaughters

Sons and Grandsons

We Shall Behold Him

-Dottie Rambo

The sky shall unfold, preparing his entrance
The stars shall applaud him with thunders of praise
The sweet light in his eyes shall enhance those awaiting
And we shall behold him, face to face

We shall behold him
Yes, we shall behold him
Face to face in all of his glory
We shall behold him
Yes, we shall behold him
Face to face, our savior and lord

The angels shall sound the shout of his coming
The sleeping shall rise from their slumbering place
And those who remain shall be changed in a moment
And we shall behold him then face to face

Acknowledgement

With sincere appreciation, we thank each you for all of the prayers, calls and words of encouragement we received since the homegoing of our beloved "Bonnie".
May God continue to bless you.

The Family

Clark S. Brown
& Sons SINCE 1928
FUNERAL HOME

727 North Patterson Avenue
Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27101
336-722-8117
www.clarksbrownandsons.com

Homegoing Celebration

for
Ms. Wyvonne C. Jordan

*"If I can help somebody as I pass along..
...then my living shall not be in vain"*

Saturday, June 27, 2020

11:00 AM

Clark S. Brown & Sons Funeral Home Chapel

727 North Patterson Avenue

Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Reverend Donald Jenkins, Officiating

Minister Michael Lewis, Eulogist

Between the Dash

On the morning of June 23, 2020 God called for his angel and Wyvonne C. Jordan “Bonnie” answered his call. Wyvonne was born on April 7, 1950 to the late Roy and Ophelia Cathey Jordan. She had a joy and a huge zeal for life. “Bonnie”, as she was lovingly called, was known for the love she had for her family, neighbors, church; but most importantly, her love for Christ. She was a dedicated member of St. Peter’s World Outreach Center, for over 35 years where she served in many capacities. One of her favorite hobbies was crocheting where she made special gifts for her family and friends.

After earning several associate degrees from Cape Fear Community College, Forsyth Tech, and High Point University, she earned her BSN from Winston-Salem State University and was pursuing a master’s degree in Nursing Administration. In the later part of her life, she developed a strong passion for pursuing her educational dreams and desired to pursue a Ph.D. after she completed her master’s program. She often joked about how she was the “grandma” of the classroom, “Bonnie” would not let any adversity stop her from reaching her goal of higher education, serving her community, and illuminating Christ through nursing.

She leaves to cherish her memories her children; Rodney Thompson, Philemon Lamar Thompson and Artanzia Thompson; her dedicated brother, Godosakahi (Sharen) Jordan and John (Deborah) Johnson of Laurens S.C.; her niece, Jacqueline Boy of Newark, N.J.; her nephews Christopher Jordan and Marcus Jordan; her dedicated godchildren whom she loved as her own, Michael Lewis of Columbia, S.C., Toni Stanks of Wilmington, N.C., and Jerry Massey, a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren whom she cherished, and a special and long-time companion, Jonathan Lewis. No matter where “Bonnie” went, her presence illuminated the room. Her boldness, tenacity, and love will surely continue to pierce generations.

Order of Service

Opening Song

Holy Scripture Readings

Reverend Donald Jenkins, Pastor
St. Paul United Methodist Church

Prayer of Comfort

Pastor Jenkins

Solo

“His Eye Is On The Sparrow”
Wykia Crawley

Special Tributes

Toni Shank
Rodney Thompson
Grandchildren

Song

“Precious Lord”
Godosakahi and Sharen Jordan

Eulogy

Minister Michael Lewis

Recessional

Interment

Woodland Cemetery
Winston-Salem, NC