

Amazing Grace

*Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now am found
Was blind but now I see*

*T'was Grace that taught my heart to fear
And Grace, my fears relieved
How precious did that Grace appear
The hour I first believed*

*Through many dangers, toils and snares
We have already come
'Tis Grace that brought us safe thus far
And Grace will lead us home*

The Obituary

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

John 3:16

Henry Green, a servant of God, at the blessed age of 76 was called home to his eternal rest on August 14, 2020. He was born in Charleston, South Carolina to the late Leonard and Polly Green.

Henry gave his life to Christ at an early age. He was a true man of God and believed Proverbs 18:22 NIV that reads, “He who finds a wife finds what is good and receives favor from the Lord.” In Angela he found a “help meet” who had also in her youth, accepted Christ as her Lord. Because of their commitment to God and to each other, they vowed to bring up their daughter Tequila, in a home filled with love for the Lord.

With a song and a prayer always in his heart, Henry served as a devoted male chorus member and deacon at several churches throughout Winston-Salem. Henry was employed with McKinney and Will Company for several years as a drillmaster.

He leaves to cherish fond memories, his loving wife of 25 years, Angela Green; their daughter, Tequila Green; his sister, Bernice Gordon of Charleston, SC; his brother, Joseph Keels of Winston-Salem, NC; and a loving host of nieces and nephews and supportive friends.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.
