Position Title: Chief Financial and Business Services Officer

Date Modified: January 2019

FLSA Classification: Exempt

Reports To: CEO/Executive Director

The Overbrook School for the Blind is seeking a highly qualified, versatile financial and business administrator -- who exudes a passion for the school, its students and its mission - - to serve as its CFO as it implements a dynamic, visionary strategic plan.

The Mission of Overbrook School for the Blind (OSB) is to develop and deliver education that enhances the options available for persons with visual impairments, including those with additional challenges, so that they have the greatest opportunity to experience active and fulfilling lives.

Organizational Description: OSB is a dynamic and multi-faceted organization centered around the operation of a private non-profit school for ages 3 to 21. Along with three other Chartered Schools for the Deaf and Blind throughout Pennsylvania, OSB receives general operating support through an annual state appropriation. OSB actively cultivates philanthropic support to increase privately invested funds overseen by the Investment Committee of the Board of Trustees, which OSB draws from annually to support both operational and capital expenditures. In addition to school operations, OSB manages expansive Birth to 3 Services in multiple counties and oversees an International Program that serves nine developing countries in southeast Asia. OSB provides support to the Overbrook Friedlander Programs (OFP), a distinct and separate non-profit that administers residential and day programs to adults with disabilities, several of whom have dual sensory impairment. Additionally, OSB provides itinerant services by Teachers of the Visually Impaired to students in local school districts and charter schools. Since 1832, OSB’s legacy of innovation in service to children who are blind or visually impaired has been promoted by sound fiscal management and careful stewardship that will no doubt be pivotal in coming years.

Job Functions: The CFO reports directly to the CEO/Executive Director and supports the following Board of Trustee committees: Budget & Audit, Investment and Facilities. This position serves as the primary staff person responsible for all financial matters, including: contracts, insurance, regulatory reporting and related interaction with state and other governmental entities. This position also provides certain financial and administrative services to OFP.
