She married CARL K CLINGERMAN Bet. Jan - Mar 1960 in Kettering, Northamptonshire. He was born 12 Jul 1938 in Sodus, Wayne, New York, and died Aug 1987 in USA.

Notes for CARL K CLINGERMAN:

.Carl Keith Clingerman was an American service man and moved from base to base while in England. Thus Lynette was born in Newmarket (Mildenhall Air Base), Selina born Kettering (Molesworth Base). Now here it gets complicated Lee Philip Thomas Ploughley Oxon (Upper Heyford Air Base) and Nathan George Thomas back in Newmarket. Why Lee & Nathan were given the name Thomas I do not quite know, but Amy thinks their mother Thurza had an affair and the father of the second two was something Thomas.

All the family went to live in the USA, with Carl or ? Thomas.

Carl married twice more but only after his wife's death, so I don't know if they divorced.

Carl's wife Thurza died in Jan 1975 in Oklahoma at the age of 34. I have since found out she committed suicide with a shotgun. I would imagine that was when some if not all of the children came back to England.

Notes for EDITH POTTER:

Died of Lobal TB. Informant on death certificate was son Ernest, not husband. Ernest and brother Leslie were estranged from their father. Family gossip suggests that Arthur was quick to marry another woman and when he died he left alot of money to her 3 daughters and nothing to his sons. He became quite wealthy, owning houses in Union St and Lower St, Kettering. Also butchers shops and the building which became the cinema and later on the Gala Bingo.

Edith was born illegitimately and grew up with her mother and grandparents. She put her grandfather on her

She died in Northampton and was living there at the time in 50 Lutterworth Road and working as a charwoman (cleaner). She is buried in Billing Road Cemetary without a stone. There are 2 young children also in the grave.

They are sisters (surname George) and were buried before her. There is one more space in the grave. Did Ernest buy the extra plot as it was never used?

46. ERNEST ARTHUR⁸ SHATFORD (ARTHUR⁷, MATILDA⁶ BELLAMY, FREDERICK⁵, JAMES SEPTIMUS⁴, THOMAS³, THURLBY², THOMAS¹) was born 14 Sep 1911 in Kettering, Northants, and died 12 Sep 1962 in Northampton. He married HARRIET ANN WILMER 1934 in Northampton, daughter of CHARLES WILMER and EMILY FROST. She was born 28 May 1913 in Northampton, and died 13 Dec 1981 in Northampton.

Notes for ERNEST ARTHUR SHATFORD:

His funeral was led by Rev. N A Stewart.

Buried at Kingsthorpe Cemetery, grave no. 23666

He died at 4 Kingsland Close, Kingsthorpe, Northampton.

His eldest son, Philip bought the house and brought up his family of 1 girl and 3 boys in it.

He would never see or speak to his father, Arthur. This is possibly due to the fact that one year after his mother Edith died, Arthur remarried a lady called Edith Walding, who had 4 illegitimate children by different fathers.

Arthur did not register Edith (Ernest's mother) as dead, it was Ernest (aged 19) who registered her death in Northampton.

It is possible that they had separated as Edith and both sons were living in Northampton at the time of her death.

Ernest died before his father yet Arthur did not attend the funeral however, Ernest's wife Harriet always said that when Arthur died, 2yrs later of a heart attack, he had died of a 'broken heart'.

Burial: Grave no 23666 at Kingsthorpe Cemetary

Notes for HARRIETT ANNIE WILMER:

Known as Nancy and said it was the name her father always called her. He was in the war at the time of her birth

and stationed in Nancy, France. He told everyone that she was his 'Nancy Baby'.

Harriet was a wonderful lady who was very family orientated. There was nothing she wouldnt do for any member of her family. She loved to do her gardening. Her garden was beautiful, with fruit and vegetables on the right hand side and on the left, a huge Magnolia tree (her son Philip had bought for her), a lawned area leading to a shed with trellis either side and roses growing through the trellis, peach coloured one side and yellow the other.

Behind

the shed was her potato patch. Each side of the garden path was awash with different coloured flowers.

Every Sunday she would take her granddaughter Ann-Marie down the garden to dig up potatoes and veg for dinner. Then on the way back up the garden she would choose which fruit to have for afters. There was a choice of many different fruits, strawberries, gooseberries.

She always worked hard but never had alot of money. She paid into 'divis' and when they matured she always shared the money with her family. One year she bought her grandchildren Paula, a dolls house, Ann-Marie, an organ and Graham, a pedal car. Expensive gifts especially when one considers that her other son Philip had 4 children and she always gave the same amount to each.

She had a budgie called Fred that she spent ages teaching to talk. She said that he did talk but nobody ever heard it!

She used to sit in her chair with the coffee table in front of her playing the card game Patience, for ages most days. She smoked Woodbine cigarettes.

She always wore a smock type apron over her clothes, unless she went out.

She loved 'Galaxy' chocolate and used to buy a large bar every week and break off a couple of squares each night to have with a cup of tea.

She had many sayings eg ' You can trust a thief but never a liar'

'A jobs not worth doing if you dont do it well'

'What goes around, comes around'

'I'll treat you when my ship comes in'

She was always singing, all types of songs but she loved Max Bygraves because he always reminded her of 'her Ernie'. She also loved the song, 'When a child is born' by Jonny Mathis.

She never got over the death of her 2nd son Brian and when Graham came along she refused to leave him and 'wrapped him up in cotton wool', so afraid she was that she would lose him too. She said that Brian had died in her arms and that she kept tapping his face to try to keep him awake as she knew that if he went to sleep she would never get him back.

Every birthday, the grandchildren would get a card with 50p inside.
