Monte Subasio - A Custom Built Masterpiece

Located in Western Loudoun County

Authentic Georgian Revival Design Home designed with attention to detail and proportion throughout. This beautiful private estate is perfectly sited on 23+ lush acres with the front surrounded by the Blue Ridge Mountains and the back views of a large natural flowing pond. The property includes jewel like gardens, amazing barn, fenced with groomsmen apartment, three paddocks, pasture land, woodlands with 5 acre pond, two streams and walking paths.

The Georgian interior is typified by a formal symmetry. The entrance hall was designed to set the tone of the house. The formal living room and dining room look toward the Blue Ridge mountains while the expansive family room opens to a brick patio overlooking the formal gardens and pond. The kitchen has white painted raised panel cabinets that gives it a timeless quality featuring Viking and Sub-Zero appliances open to the morning and breakfast rooms. Expansive main level master wing boasts an entry hall, luxurious bath with marble, AM bar, double doors to private conservatory, impressive walk-in closet and a spacious bedroom with individual sitting room. Charming main level laundry room, butlers pantry and indoor heated salt-water lap pool.

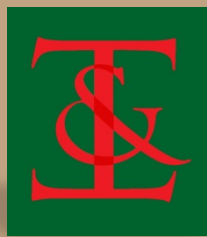

The lower level has a sprawling club room with huge wet bar and stone gas fireplace, wine cellar, unbelievable ice cream parlor, chapel and two powder rooms. The combination three stall barn, with a groomsmen apartment and office, tack room/kitchenette, three bay detached garage and an adorable potting shed complete the estate.
