2018 14th Annual CBAH Event

Saturday, February 24th, 2018

NATIONAL THEME: AFRICAN AMERICANS IN TIMES OF WAR

Dear Community Partner:

The Board of Directors for Celebration of Black American History (CBAH), invites your participation in our 14th Annual Black History Month Event, Saturday, February 24, 2018. Our new location is the Marriott Marquis, located at 780 Mission Street in San Francisco. The evening events begin with a VIP Reception at 6:00 p.m., followed by a scrumptious soul food dinner and an exciting program of entertainment at 7:00 p.m.

Former Mayor Ed Lee, and former Mayor and Speaker of the California House of Representatives, Willie Brown, have been active participants of the CBAH celebration since its inception. The Honorable London Breed, Acting Mayor of San Francisco and former Mayor Willie Brown have been invited to speak about the contributions made by CBAH in many San Francisco communities through education, employment opportunities, creative arts and economic empowerment. You will be joined by other high-profile guest participants at the 2018 CBAH Event.

CBAH was created to recognize, acknowledge and celebrate the many awesome contributions made by Black Americans to the foundation of the American history. Each year during the CBAH event, specific emphasis is placed on the contributions made by Black Americans of San Francisco. The event celebration showcases the many accomplishments of local individuals, artist, and organizations, and the resources raised by CBAH are used for approved grants that assist individuals and organizations who continually support the Black American communities in the San Francisco Bay Area.

It was February 2003 that four working women of the City and County of San Francisco came together to celebrate Black American history during a private luncheon. That celebratory luncheon has evolved into a cornerstone social calendar event with 500 or more guest participants.

The year 2017 marks a new beginning for CBAH. We have become a 501(c) 3 nonprofit organization and a portion of your sponsorship contributions are tax deductible. The theme for this 14th annual event is, "African Americans In Times of War, you are the reason we are strong."

If you have not already done so, please let us know your sponsorship commitment level by emailing your commitment to Marvin Williams CBAH Vice President, at: marvin.williams@aptusllcservices.com.

Feel free to contact Marvin Williams, if you have questions or need additional information by telephone; (469) 363-1827.

Sponsorship levels are included in the attachment.

Sponsorship checks are to be made payable to; CBAH, and mailed to: Dwayne Jones CBAH Treasurer, at PO BOX 420893, SAN FRANCISCO, CA 94142-0893, on or before January 16, 2018.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you for your continued patronage.

Sincerely,

Karen J. Hill
CBAH President
