From Chris Stewart, Pastoral Assistant

Well it's that time of year again, summer break is officially over and we send the kids back to school. Some kids are excited, some are nervous, and all of them wish summer break was longer. For a lot of us, school was a long time ago and kids today face challenges we never had to in our time. So it's important that the church remembers our kids in our prayers as often as possible. Let's all be praying for the Lord's protection over our children. Pray that they be lights in dark places, that they are brave representatives of Christ, and that we (the Church) do everything we can to equip them to walk with the Lord. Parents, grand parents, Sunday school teachers, let's remember our duty given in the words of Deuteronomy 6:5-7

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Father, I pray for each and every child of every age that will be heading away from home to attend school this year. I pray that you cover them in your full armor so they may repel the enemy's tactics. I pray for their health and safety and that school administrators are able to prepare a healthy and safe environment for them to learn in. I pray that each child is able to put aside their fear and worry so they may fully enjoy the resources in learning that they'll be provided. I pray for the parents who may be home worrying. I pray they trust that you will be watching and protecting their children during this time away from home. And I pray that you will destroy any tactic the enemy wishing to use to do harm or cause temptation to these young, innocent souls. And I pray that each day, each and every child will come home, safe and full of joy, ready to share in the excitement of everything they learned. Amen.
