Third Shutoff Looms

By Michael Singer
CASTRO VALLEY FORUM

The lights are back on in Castro Valley but don't put the flashlights away just yet.

Hot, dry winds coming from the east this week could force PG&E to shut power off to even more Castro Valley neighborhoods for the third time this month.

More than 3,300 customers were impacted by last week's Public Safety Power Shutoff, or PSPS. Just after 8 p.m. on Saturday, Pacific Gas & Electric began shutting down power to homes closest to Lake Chabot Regional Park as well as ridgelines along Fairmont Ridge, Cull Canyon Road, Palomares Hills, and Palomares Road.

Whipping winds as fast as 70 miles per hour felled branches and a few trees, including one on Jensen Road near the Castro Village Shopping Center.

Castro Valley Unified School District closed Chabot, Jensen Ranch, Palomares, and Proctor Elementary Schools, Canyon Middle School, and Redwood High School on Monday in response to the power outage. The district says it will assess the situation this week and only close campuses on a case-by-case basis.

All East Bay Regional Parks and Regional Trails were closed this weekend due to extreme weather and fire dangers. Officials say high winds can cause falling trees and branches, which can cause injury.

Residents are advised not to enter any East Bay Regional Park District park during any weather-related closure, even on foot. Park rangers will issue citations.

In addition to the winds and power outages, Castro Valley got an abundance of smoke generated from the 66,000-acre Kincade Fire in Sonoma County and 140 acres burning in South Vallejo.

The Bay Area Air Quality Management District registered "very unhealthy" levels this past weekend. People with asthma or other breathing difficulties are reminded to wear a respirator mask if they must go outside.

Water will continue to flow into Castro Valley during the outages. East Bay Municipal Utilities District says if the power goes off, generators will keep the tap on. Residents are asked to be considerate and conserve during the planned blackouts.

To keep prepared for this or any emergencies, emergency officials suggest residents fuel up their vehicles; have flashlights on hand instead of candles; and stock up on water, ice and non-perishable food supplies for at least 72 hours. Additionally:

- Plan for medical needs like medications that require refrigeration or devices that need power.
- Identify backup charging methods for phones and keep hard copies of emergency numbers.
- Build or restock emergency kit with flashlights, fresh batteries, first aid supplies and cash.
- Keep in mind family members who are elderly, younger children and pets.

You can receive updates by registering at pge.com/mywild-firealerts or by calling 1-866-743-6589. PG&E will use this information to alert customers through automated calls, texts, and emails, when possible, prior to, and during, a PSPS. For those who need extra resources, PG&E set up a Community Resource Center in the K-Mart parking lot at 26231 Mission Blvd. for small device-charging, cooling, and water. Open daily from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

HOLY SMOKES: A brown haze enveloped Castro Valley on Sunday as some 3,400 firefighters battled raging wildfires that destroyed dozens of homes and businesses in the North Bay and East Bay. Ferocious wind gusts in the Sonoma County firestorm topped 90 mph at times. Millions in the state were without power, unsure when the blackouts would end.

AN ILL WIND: For the past few years, Rosa and Jim Doll's yard at 4325 Shamrock Way has become a popular Castro Valley spot to visit this time of year, decorated with one of the town's must-see displays. They put up an even more elaborate scene this year, but then one of those "historical" wind gusts on Sunday undid their hours of work, leaving their lawn in shambles. If the wind stops in time, Rosa and Jim plan to put it back together for the dozens of ghosts and goblins who will be stopping by tomorrow night. But whether that happens or not, they will keep another of their Halloween traditions: giving out candy bars — not miniatures, but the real-deal full-size ones — to all of the trick-or-treaters who come by, beginning at 6 p.m.

RCS Celebrates 50th Anniversary

Redwood Christian Schools celebrated half a century of ministry last week with a 50th Anniversary Dinner at San Ramon's Canyon View Estate.

The event, on Oct. 21, honored the schools' Founding Superintendent August C "Gus" Enderlin and his wife Gale and included founders, long-time supporters, and past and current parents.

Dr. Al Hearne, RCS Superintendent, and school principals, Ben Warner and Dale Huemoeller, and Director of Advancement Mike Kady interviewed alumni from each decade regarding their memories of RCS and how the school staff has continued to impact their lives in adulthood and ministry. They included Christine Todd DiGiacomo (1978), Eric Reinhardt (1980), Josh Hendren (1995), Aaron T. Macklin (2005), and Chelsea Martinez (2015).

Pictures and videos from the past five decades brought back memories since the 1969-70 school year when 75 students attended. The school now has more than 700 students.

Students welcomed and served the more than 300 dinner guests. The Concert Choir, under the direction of Miss Rachel Fong, ministered to all present.

'Hello Dolly' Opens Next Week

Hayward's Douglas Morrison Theatre returns to the golden age of the American musical, celebrating its 40th Anniversary Season with the Tony Award-winning Broadway hit "Hello, Dolly!"

Once hailed as "one of the biggest, brightest musicals of this century!" by The New York Times, the show is a non-stop display of the exploits of Dolly Gallagher-Levi, a turn-of-the-century matchmaker and "woman who arranges things," says DMT's Theatre Manager Mary Jo Price. "Hello, Dolly fills the stage with romance, humor, high-energy dancing, and some of the greatest songs in theater history."

The perennial favorite opens Friday, Nov. 8 and runs through Nov. 24, with Friday and Saturday evening (8 p.m.) and Sunday matinee (2 p.m.) performances.

A preview performance will take place at 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 7. The theater is located 22311 N. Third St. in Hayward.

For tickets ($10 preview, $15-$29 performances), call the box office at 510-881-6777.

Crayon Collection Drive

The Castro Valley Library is inviting everyone to participate in the Crayon Initiative, a program to recycle used and unwanted crayons by melting them down, re-manufacturing them, and then sending the remade crayons to art programs in children's hospitals across the country.

More than a half-million pounds of crayons are discarded annually throughout the U.S. where they end up in our landfills and never biodegrade.

Wax crayons are made of petroleum, which is toxic to our environment.

Recycling them into new ones and then sharing them with patients in children's hospitals is a double win: we protect our planet and enrich the lives of children during a difficult time in their lives.

Beginning on Saturday, Nov. 9, bring your unwanted crayons to the library and deposit them in the colorful collection boxes located throughout the building.

For additional information about the program, contact the Library at 510-667-7900.

Neighborhood Parties Offer Best Halloween Treats

Parties are a great way to celebrate Halloween, both for kids and their families.

Here are some quick-to-fix party favorites for tomorrow night.

CHOCOLATE-PUMPKIN HALLOWEEN BROWNIES

For Pumpkin Mixture:

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/3 cup cream cheese
- 6 tablespoons sugar
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup pumpkin purée
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
- 1/3 cup flour

For Chocolate Mixture:

- 3/4 cup plus 1 tablespoon butter
- 7 ounces dark chocolate, chopped
- 3 large eggs
- 1-1/3 cups sugar
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1/2 cup plus 1 tablespoon flour
- Pinch of salt
- 1/2 cup pecans, coarsely chopped

Preheat the oven to 355°F.

Grease and line an 8x12-inch rectangular baking pan with parchment paper.

To make the pumpkin mixture, beat all the ingredients together until smooth. Keep to one side. For the chocolate mixture, melt the butter and chocolate together, either in a bowl over a pan of simmering water or gently in the microwave.

In a separate bowl, beat together the eggs, sugar and vanilla extract with an electric hand whisk until thick and creamy. Mix in the melted chocolate and butter. Finally, stir in the flour, salt and pecans.

Pour the chocolate mixture into the lined baking pan and level off the surface. Using a tablespoon, drop dollops of the pumpkin mixture all over the top, and then, using the back of a table knife, loosely swirl it into the chocolate mixture.

Place in the oven and bake for about 25 minutes, until the top is cracking and the centre is just set. Leave to cool in the pan for 40-45 minutes before cutting into about 20 bite-sized squares.

CARAMEL APPLES

- 1/3 cup packed light brown

Chocolate-Pumpkin Halloween Brownies

- sugar
- 1/4 cup agave nectar
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 3 tablespoons chopped unsalted nuts
- 6 small apples

Line a baking sheet with wax paper and coat with cooking spray. Coat a tablespoon measure with cooking spray.

Combine brown sugar, agave, butter and salt in a small saucepan. Place over medium heat; as soon as the syrup starts to lightly bubble around the edges, cook, stirring constantly, for 1 minute more. Add nuts and cook, stirring constantly, until the sugar is melted and the mixture darkens, about 1 minute. Remove from the heat.

Working quickly, spoon about

1 tablespoon of caramel over each apple. Repeat, spooning another tablespoon of caramel over each apple, turning as you pour. Let cool on the baking sheet for 5 minutes. Insert popsicle/craft sticks into the tops. Press any stray strands of caramel back onto the apples. Let cool for at least 30 minutes.

SPICY HALLOWEEN COOKIES

- 3 cups flour
- 1 teaspoon baking soda

- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
- 1/2 teaspoon ground allspice
- 3/4 cup vegetable shortening
- 1-1/4 cups sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 cup canned pumpkin
- 1/4 cup milk
- 1 cup chopped nuts
- Cinnamon Frosting

Sift together flour, soda and spices. Cream together shortening and sugar until fluffy. Beat in egg and pumpkin. Mix in flour mixture alternately with milk. Add nuts. Place rounded teaspoons of dough on lightly greased baking sheet. Bake at 375°F for 12 to 15 minutes. Cool, then ice with Cinnamon Frosting. Makes about 6-1/2 dozen.

Cinnamon Frosting

- 1/4 cup butter
- 1-3/4 cups powdered sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 to 3 tablespoons milk

Cream butter until light, then beat in other ingredients until smooth.

HOT MULLED APPLE CIDER

- 6 1-inch cinnamon sticks
- 1 tablespoon whole cloves
- 1 tablespoon whole allspice
- 2 pieces whole nutmeg
- 2 cups brown sugar
- 1 gallon apple cider

16 whole cinnamon sticks

Tie first four ingredients in a cloth bag. In a large pot, stir together the sugar and cider. Add the spice bag.

Bring to a boil and simmer for about 20 minutes. Remove the spice bag and serve hot with a whole cinnamon stick in each mug. Serves 16.

PUMPKIN CORN

- 8 cups popcorn
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 tablespoon canned pumpkin
- 1 teaspoon brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon powdered sugar

Place popcorn in large bowl. Melt butter in small pan over low heat. Remove from heat. Stir in ground cloves, cinnamon, pumpkin and brown sugar. Spoon onto popcorn and toss with hands to coat thoroughly. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon of powdered sugar.

Mary "JEAN" Alvernaz

(1939 - 2019)

Passed away Tuesday, October 8, 2019, surrounded by the love of her family, near and far.

She is survived by her devoted husband Rodrigo "Rod" Alvernaz of over 61 years. She was a loving mother to Roderick Alvernaz, Mario Alvernaz (Jackie), Anna Abbott, and Gina Amaral (Joe). She and Rod have 9 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren, whom she loved dearly. She is also survived by her brother Anthony Bettencourt (Margaret) of Chico, CA and 14 nieces and nephews both here in the States and in Portugal.

She was a banker for 30 years in Castro Valley, CA, President of the Castro Valley Chamber of Commerce, and its Treasurer for over 20 years. President of the Castro Valley Lioness Club and, later, President of the Castro Valley Sunrise Rotary Club. She was involved in the Castro Valley Schools PTAs, a member of the School District Personnel Commission, and the Castro Valley Library.

Jean served 20 years on the Board of the Selective Service System. She was also very active in the Portuguese community, especially the Luso-American Financial and it's Education Foundation.

Jean was dedicated to her church, serving as President of the Parish Council of Our Lady of Grace church, Castro Valley, and in the Diocesan and National Councils of Catholic Women, also serving as Diocesan President for two years.

In 1977 Pope Paul VI bestowed upon her the Pro Ecclesia Et Pontifice award.

Retiring to Brentwood, CA, Jean became active at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Birthright of Brentwood, and the East Contra Costa Republican Women Federated. She did all of this with her ready smile, quick wit and sense of humor, and a laugh that endeared her to so many.

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 11 a.m. on Monday, Nov. 4 at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, 500 Fairview Avenue (at Central) Brentwood, CA. And a reception will follow, at 1:30 p.m. at the SDES Hall, 30846 Watkins Street, Union City, CA. Private interment.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the Alzheimer's Foundation, Birthright of Brentwood, or the Luso-American Education Foundation.

Chester Arthur La Velle

August 4, 1919 - September 28, 2019

With a family member holding his hand, Chet went peacefully to be with the Lord two months after his 100th birthday.

Born on a farm in Dana, Illinois, he was sixth of twelve children. His love of the mountains and travel grew when he went to work for the Civilian Conservation Corps at age 17 and was stationed on Isle Royale in Lake Superior, Michigan. Moving to Oregon at age 20, he attended Warner Pacific Bible College where he met Lois, the love of his life! They were married in 1944, and he became a pastor in Cutler, California. Teaching was his true calling, however, and after a few years, they moved to Oxnard, California where he taught 5th grade. They had three daughters and then moved to Castro Valley in 1950. There he operated a chicken farm and attended U.C. Berkeley at night to update his teaching credentials. He then began teaching in the Industrial Arts Department at Chabot College, while also designing and building his own house in the Hayward hills.

Chet and his wife were active in the Castro Valley schools and were founding members of the instrumental music support group I.M.P.S. (later P.M.S.).

Upon retirement, Chet and Lois moved to Pioneer and enjoyed many years of retirement there. Besides traveling all over the country in their trailer, they also bought a Honda Gold Wing motorcycle and visited many places in the gold country with their cycling friends. They rode together until he was 96 years old. His hobbies included crossword puzzles, welding, building, flying his own plane, and camping with his children and grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife of 73 years and his youngest daughter Karen. He is survived by his daughters Kathy Peck and Wanda Rice; grandchildren Janine, Shelly, Jesse, Dayna, Ryan, Aimee, Erin, Issac, and Emily; and ten great-grandchildren.

A family graveside memorial is planned for Saturday, Nov. 2 at 11 a.m. at the Sunset View Cemetery, Jackson, CA.

Condolences and memories may be shared with the family by visiting www.danerimortuary.com

Donations may be made in his name to Grace Fellowship, 8040 South Highway 49, Jackson, CA 95642.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Lots of choices could make it difficult to select what is best for your needs. Avoid snap judgments. Take the time to check them all out to find the one that really meets your goals.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You could once again experience pressure from others who would like to see you move in another direction. But heed your Bovine instincts to stay on your own path.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Taking charge of a project that seems to be about to stall or collapse altogether could be a challenge. But once everyone knows what you expect of him or her, things should go smoothly.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Avoid the pressures of the upcoming holiday period by setting a time right now to discuss how to divide up the responsibility of helping a loved one come through a difficult period.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It's not too early for all you Leonas and Leos to start making long-distance travel plans. The sooner you stop procrastinating and start deciding where, when and how you're going, the better.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Someone you've known for years might disappoint you, or even make you feel you've been betrayed. But check the facts carefully before you make charges that could backfire on you.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A holiday plan might need to be revised to accommodate an unexpected complication. Come up with an alternative arrangement as soon as possible to avoid more problems down the line.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Don't accept halfway explanations for a situation that requires full disclosure. The more you know now, the better able you will be to handle any complications that might arise.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) The cooperation you relied upon might not be easy to get. Maybe there's an information gap. See if everyone understands the situation. If not, be sure to offer a full explanation.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Problems caused by that recent workplace distraction should soon be easing, allowing you to resume working at a less frantic pace. That personal matter also begins to ease up.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Changing your mind about a job decision isn't easy for the usually committed Aquarian. But once you check it out, you'll find facts you didn't know before. And facts don't lie.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your unique way of sizing up a situation gives you an edge in resolving that upsetting workplace problem. Stay on your current course regardless of any attempts to distract you.

Top Five Ways to Prevent Buyer Fright and Flight

Sizzling hot seller markets have a common theme: the sellers can do almost anything and still sell their home.

When the market shifts and slows down, however, things change and buyers — with more options to choose from along with lower prices — will beat a hasty exit if something gives them the creeps.

Want to avoid giving a buyer the chills this Halloween? Avoid these five things:

• Zombie Sellers

This is the name given to homeowners who insist on hovering around prospective buyers during showings. Buyers hate having owner(s) present; they prefer to freely examine and discuss properties with key decision makers and their agent without being overheard.

This cannot happen if a seller is stalking close by. This also applies to sellers who may want to monitor their homes electronically and listen in or watch video while buyers are in the home.

• Pet Cemeteries

Anyone who has had a beloved pet understands that some may wish to honor the memory of their deceased pet by immortalizing their remains in the rear yard.

Unfortunately, this can cause issues for prospective purchasers who cannot imagine what they will do with the headstone or other memorials once the sellers depart.

• Deathly Colors

Over the years I've seen numerous colors in bedrooms. While some can be expected, such as varying shades of pink, I have seen Caltrans orange, firetruck red, Barney purple, fluorescent lime green and more.

The worst color, however, is black. Your teen may love their Goth environment, but if you want to sell your home, it is best to remove hair-raising paint schemes with more traditional colors.

• Undisclosed Deaths

It is not uncommon for people to pass away at home, and, when death occurs, the sellers have a legal obligation to disclose. While some die of natural causes, some sellers must contend with suicides and, in extreme cases, homicides. Failure to correctly disclose can lead to serious legal issues.

• Unwanted Residents

Over the years of showing homes I've had to wade through massive accumulations of spiderwebs, observed rats scurrying about, found mouse traps complete with deceased victims and seen unsavory insects of varying kinds.

A great way to resolve issues like this, especially in vacant homes, is to hire a pest abatement service.

Buying a home can be scary all by itself: keep on top of these five issues to prevent buyer fright and flight.

Don't Want a Tall Tree? Don't Plant One!

By Buzz Bertolero
SPECIAL TO THE FORUM

Q I planted a Deodora cedar in my front yard, and it's already about twelve feet tall. I do not want it to grow huge, maybe around 20 feet tall. How would I control this? Should I cut off the top to keep it under control?

A You really can't stop a healthy tree from growing. When it gets too large, you'll have to either live with it or replace it.

I don't mean to be critical, but why in the world would you plant a tree that wants to grow to 40 to 60 feet tall (or more) and expect to maintain it at half that height?

Topping a tree to reduce or restrict its size is never a good solution. Not only does it destroy the natural and graceful growth habit, but it very often shortens the lifespan, allowing the entry of various disease pathogens and insect pests.

It is far better to select a tree or shrub that is expected to grow to the height or spread desired without excessive pruning or topping to keep size in check.
