

Rev. Dr. Frederick N. Yebuah, former Orangeburg District Superintendent, is affectionately known as Brother Frederick. He was born in Ghana, West Africa, and moved to the United States in 1973. He furthered his education at The American Baptist College in Nashville, Tennessee, where he completed his undergraduate studies.

Brother Frederick began his ministry in The United Methodist Church in 1975 as a student pastor in The Tennessee Annual Conference. In 1985, he earned his Doctor of Ministry degree from Vanderbilt University, in Nashville, Tennessee. In the same year he transferred his membership to the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Brother Frederick is married to the former Ms. Suzette Jackson of Hartsville, South Carolina. He is the proud father of two children, Lisa and Fred.

Mother Teresa is one of Brother Frederick's modern day Saints. Her works and words inspire Brother Frederick, notably: "Love cannot remain by itself, it has no meaning. Love has to be put into action, and action is service." Being a servant-leader is his great desire and delight.

In Christ,

Rev. Dr. Frederick N. Yebuah
