

I THESSALONIANS

Part Thirteen

I Thessalonians 2:10-12

Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe: As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

3. Paul's Methods. 5-12.

d. Paul's methods were focused on godliness. 10-12.

1) Godliness in his behavior among them.

a) His behavior was transparent. Ye are witnesses

b) His behavior was as before God. and God also

c) His behavior demonstrated his relationship with God. holily

d) His behavior was governed by his principles. justly

e) His behavior was above reproach. unblameably

f) His behavior was to help believers. among you that believe

GREAT TRUTHS

1. The godly behavior of believers is an essential ingredient of changing lives.

2. People learn as much about God from your behavior as they do from your words.

3. If you want to bring godliness to the behavior of others you must begin by bringing more godliness to your own behavior.
