

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times,
a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Timothy Martin Wilson was born April 29, 1968 in Brooklyn, NY, the son of Robinsena Wilson, who preceded him in death. On February 8, 2024, he passed away unexpectedly at his home.

He attended public schools in Wallace, SC and graduated from Wallace High School. Afterwards, he served and was honorably discharged from the U.S. Marines.

He was a member of Clifton Grove Baptist Church in Kernersville, NC. For many years he was a dedicated long haul truck driver. In his pastime, he loved watching football and spending quality time with family and friends.

In addition to his mother, he was also preceded in death by his brother, James Wilson; sister, Andra Wilson-Moore; uncles, Clarence Moore and Nathaniel Williams; aunt, Annie Louise Abraham; and cousin, Lena Wright.

Those who remain to cherish his memory include: son, Timothy E. Wilson; brother, Christopher (Teresa) Wilson; sister, Tammy (Michael) Moore; great aunt, Vera Chestnut; aunts, Ida Shannon and Daisy Green; Celeste Steele, long-time partner; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends.

Someone Is Missing

*Let this be a loving reminder
That someone is missing today,
Someone our hearts still hold on to,
As we travel along life's way.*

*Someone who made life special.
For all those who gather here,
Someone who won't be forgotten,
But cherished from year to year.*

*And now as we pause to remember,
Let us all fondly recall
How dearly each of us loved him,
And oh, how he loved us all.*
