

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little – but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

OBITUARY

Otis W. Blyther was born in Philadelphia, PA on November 13, 1955. After a brief illness, Otis departed this life on March 19, 2025 in Winston-Salem, NC.

He attended local community schools and was a graduate of Parkland High School. His employment included positions with Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and Winston-Salem State University.

Otis was a joyful man who enjoyed spending time with family, friends and watching television. He loved watching football and was a Dallas Cowboys fan. Otis lived, worked and shared generously with his family. Because of those close relationships, he will always be remembered for his giving spirit.

He was preceded in death by: his father, Irby Blyther, Jr. and mother, Lucille Williams-Lomax, his brother, Rudy Blyther, and nephew, Raheen Blyther.

Those he leaves to cherish his memory include: his caring sister, Rhonda Blyther, brother, Rickey (Taffney) Blyther, cousin, Annette (Alex) Rockston, and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews.

If I Can Help Somebody

If I can help somebody as I pass along

If I can cheer somebody with a word or song

If I can show somebody that he's traveling wrong

Then my living shall not be in vain
