

James K. Georges

Chief Executive Officer

As the company's Chief Executive Officer, James "Jim" Georges directs the company's operations on a day-to-day basis. Jim's career at The PAR Group began in 1985, as a part-time employee, working in the company's shipping department while he was still a college student at Mercer University in Atlanta.

After graduating from Mercer with a B.A. degree in broadcast communications, he joined the company fulltime, taking on various roles over the next few years in logistics, customer service, marketing and inventory management.

Among the many projects Jim has worked on at PAR has been the production of several PAR training films. Using his background in broadcast communications, he worked as production assistant, producer and executive producer on PAR productions that won multiple training industry awards including the prestigious World Fest Award the Telly Award the PMN Joey Award.

In 1993, Jim was appointed Chief Financial Officer, and later in 1997, he assumed his current position as CEO. In this role, he has successfully directed The PAR Group's steady, profitable growth.

Jim is also an accomplished still photographer, whose work has been used by non-profit organizations, printed in annual reports, and posted on various web sites.

