RUCC is on Snapchat!

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?"

So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days. -Acts 10: 44-48 (NRSV) is good for us to remember that the resurrection of Jesus was flowing toward the giving of The Holy Spirit. That gift was for the purpose of speaking across all human/social boundaries, so that The Word of Life might flow from the believers outward, and EVERYONE might hear The Good News of GOD's Mercy.

So the question for us Christians today (and always) is:
"How are The LORD's blessings flowing through my life and out into the rest of Creation?"

As we approach the time in the church-year when we celebrate and seek to embrace the fire, wind and water of The Spirit more fully, it is an opportunity to prayerfully consider in what ways we are being called and equipped to practice evangelism and more expansively share the faith which gives us hope, meaning, purpose and peace, for this life and The Life to Come.

I'm blessed to say that our congregation is always asking this –and discovering new ways to engage our high calling from Christ. May our efforts receive a double outpouring of The Spirit's anointing in the days ahead!

All Peace, Love & Blessings;
 Your brother & servant in Christ-Jesus,

-w-

A Natural Flow

"Forgiven to offer forgiveness."

"Redeemed to be redeemers."

"Liberated to be liberators."

"Saved to share salvation."

The heart of Christian discipleship is found in sentiments such as the ones above. Yes: we are called to pursue personal transformation and sanctification (through The Spirit's power), but simultaneously, we are to be a SENT people.

That's the thrust of the Resurrection Season. Every time Jesus appeared to the disciples prior to his ascension, he ministered to their broken hearts and offered grace toward their sin and error, but he also commanded and commissioned them to go out into the rest of the world and share The Gospel. Their own encounters with The Resurrected One were merely the beginning of the story and never an end unto-themselves.

As we stand in the halfway point between Easter and Pentecost ^(May 20th), it

A MESSAGE FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF YOUTH AND FAMILY MINISTRIES

May is known as the “merry, merry” month, or that’s how the song goes anyway. This May at Richville UCC we plan to connect with our merry, merry Mothers on Mother’s Day, May 13th. I have Karen Provost in charge of gathering Mother’s Day flowers (pansies) this year! She will be delivering a couple of flats along with some potting soil for planting these posies into Styrofoam cups. Our Sunday School kiddos will get their hands dirty transferring the little flowers into the pots for all our Moms and Grand-Moms. If weather permits, we will all gather in the pavilion for this event.

On the same day, there will be our Teacher Appreciation for our Sunday School Teachers during our Mother’s Day worship service. They will be recognized for their diligence and tenacity in teaching our kiddos every Sunday morning. I can’t emphasize the importance of these folks who have a passion for the spiritual formation of our youngsters.

Speaking of Sunday School Teachers, the CE crew and myself plan on an informal in-service recruit planning meeting possibly held at Bill and Maureen Stetler’s home during this merry, merry month of May. We want to cast our vision of expanding our teacher-base to others in the fold of our church. I have been making contacts and asking folks to think and pray about their interest and availability. We also want to discuss instructional and classroom strategies to help us maintain a comfortable teaching methodology. The exact time and day of our gathering for this event is TBD.

As I may have mentioned before, this is “crunch time” with our approaching VBS. I stay in close contact with our Director and Co-Director as we meet, plan, and strategize for this year. We try to stay ahead and maintain the VBS timeline. It will be here before you know it! Stay tuned!!

In Christ’s love and Service,
Gary Bickel
 Director of Youth & Family Ministries

THANK YOU

EGGSTRA-SPECIAL THANK YOU!

Just want to send an eggstra-special thank you to everyone who helped to make the Community Easter Egg Hunt a success. This project was a joint effort -from the 22 people who came and helped fill 5,000 eggs, to the people who donated, money, candy, cupcakes, eggs and helped in any way the day of the hunt -it was totally a team effort. I do want to share with all of you that the 100+ children and parents who came that day expressed great THANKS to the church through the people who were walking the egg-filled yard. So once again, THANKS to all who helped. I could not have done it without all of your help.

Thanks again,
Beckie Custer
