Juice recently appeared on the Crook & Chase show on TNN 12/7/99. Juice sang, "They Never Made It To Memphis". Juice mentioned how much fun she has when she records an album. She had a great interview! Crook & Chase made Juice a health drink and it was named after her. It was called THE JUICE NEWTON.

FAN'S SUPPORT

Juice has been very lucky to have such devoted and loyal fans. Case in point, we recently had a contest. It was to tell why you were Juice's top fan and why. I am thrilled to announce we have a winner!! Joseph Stivers won! All entries (there were a lot) were judged by three non-partial parties on all rules set forth at the beginning of the contest. The biggest being originality, Congratulations Joseph! Joseph won Juice's new CD "American Girl".

If you have something to say about the new CD, send me an email and I will post it in the Fan Feedback section of our website!

Paul's Review of...

"AMERICAN GIRL"

I have waited for another new CD by Juice ever since "The Trouble With Angels" was released last year. Juice went to a new label and recorded a great CD!

Juice is well known for the emotion she packs in a song. Everything from a happy tone to a sad note and this album is no different!

The CD starts off on a toe tapping fun song that simply tell you to "Ask Lucinda". A song about someone looking for answers about love ending.

Then Juice gets to feeling her Country influence with a great song called "Listen to The Radio". This great picking song mentions two Country Music Legends! Juice sings it with the conviction that makes you believe this song was about her!

Perhaps one of my favorite things about Juice Newton is the way she carries a ballad to its fullest extent. This CD has a few songs that will tug at your heartstrings. The first one you will hear is "Love Hurts". Juice's voice glides up and down throughout the song and then belts out the end with total emotion. Another great one "I've Been Mistreated" which Juice sings wonderfully. I must admit my all time favorite on this new CD is "You Can't Say You Don't Love Me Anymore". Not since "Hurt" in 1986 have I heard tears in the lyrics as they were sang. I tip my hat to Juice on this one!

There are some fun songs in typical Juice Newton fashion! One is "Keeping Me Alive" which was an unreleased Tom Petty song. Then there is the classic song "Crazy Little Thing Called Love". Juice has fun on this song. : ) There's an upbeat song called "Nighttime Without You". This is a great song but sounds like more Bette Midler style than Juice. But Juice does a great job on it! Then there is a rendition of the title cut of her CD from last year called "The Trouble With Angels". The sound is a little different but is reworked into a great tune! Next is the title cut "American Girl" This also was on the CD from last year. Song is great, you can't blame Juice for using it for the title cut. Juice revisits her Country Roots with "There Goes My Love" a great two stepping song! Then of course there is "They Never Made It To Memphis".

I will sum it up in a few words. This is one heck of an album!

FANCLUB GUIDELINES

Over the first year and a half of the club's existence I have received many requests for information or items that cannot be given. So, there are now Guidelines for the Juice Newton Fanclub.

1) No, personal or email information will be given out to anyone at anytime, unless they are participating in the Juice Trading. Then and only then, will a first name and address be given.

In order to keep things running smoothly and keep everyone happy, these guidelines must be met. Thank you for your cooperation.

HOLIDAY GOODIES

Juice is featured on a Holiday compilation called "Christmas Celebration of Women". On this collection Juice sings, "Christmas Needs Love To Be Christmas". A sample of this song can be heard at the Fanclub website during the Holidays. Other artists in this collection are Pat Benatar and Holly Dunn. This CD can be purchased through CDNOW on the Internet. Log on and bring Juice to your home for the holidays!

AIDS WALK SAN DIEGO

Recently in October 1999, Juice performed with Dionne Warwick and Nell Carter and Jennifer Holiday and Miss Universe!! They were all there as part of the annual San Diego Aids Walk. All proceeds went to benefit the various AIDS Charities in San Diego. Miss Universe introduced Juice! Juice looked wonderful! Juice was as classy as the Copley Symphony Hall where this event was held. Juice sang "Trouble With Angels" & "Queen of Hearts" and "Angel of The Morning". Juice received a well deserved round of applause and cheers. Juice really came through because the night prior she was on the East Coast doing a late show. Way to go Juice!

THIS AND THAT

This past year was extremely busy for Juice. Juice was on tour much of the year. It was nice to see so many of you get the chance to see her and tell me how much you enjoyed the shows. The Bobby Roberts Company is Juice's booking agency and I think they deserve a HUGE thank you for all they have done for Juice! Juice can now rest with her family Tom and Jessica and Tyler for the holidays.

A Change

Our name has changed. We were known as the Juice Newton Online Fanclub. We have now changed our name to the Juice Newton Fanclub. We have grown, and at first, I didn't want people to confuse the new club with the old. So, with Maxine Young's blessing (THE PRESIDENT ALWAYS OF THE ORIGINAL CLUB) we are now known as the JUICE NEWTON FANCLUB.
