Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

Obituary

Brenda Elaine Carter Roebuck affectionately known as “Tiny”, was born to the late Ruby Lee Carter and Mango Richardson, Jr. on December 11, 1956. She received her heavenly wings on December 12, 2022.

She received her formal education from Winston-Salem/ Forsyth County Schools. Later, for more than 10 years, she was employed by the local school system. Brenda was of the Baptist faith, enjoyed helping others, being with her family and her dog, Cinnamon.

Brenda was preceded in death by her parents; a devoted friend, Anthony Kirby; three brothers, Sammy Lee, Mango and William Carter.

Left to mourn her passing but cherish her memory are: a sister, Betty Carter; two brothers, Larry Carter and Melvin Carter; two aunts, Lorene Carter and Nancy Carter; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Memories

*Life can never stay the same
No matter how we try
Our hands can never stop
The clock of life from ticking by
But love remains, unchanging
In the care of sorrowing hearts
For as the love of life is stilled
The love of memory starts

With Our Love

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

*You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*
