

IF WE CROSS THAT LINE

*I don't understand
It scares me to think that I see more than a friend
When I look at you
It's all so complicated emotions understated
Should I lose a friend on a chance that I'll find love*

*In my heart I know
It cannot work can't let the passion show
When I look at you
This burning deep inside will not be satisfied
And it hurts to know that you are hurting too*

*I wonder would it be the same if we crossed that line
Would it be the same if we kissed just one time
Are you hiding like me afraid to see
What would happen if we crossed that line.*

*I'd stand with you
Do anything you want me to
Be your friend be by your side
I would keep you satisfied
No one would ever know
Our lives would still go on as though
Nothing's change nothing's changed*

*Would it be the same if we crossed that line
Would it be the same if we kissed just one time
Are you hiding like me afraid to see
What would happen if we crossed that line.
I wonder would it be the same if we crossed that line
Would it be the same if we kissed just one time
Are you hiding like me afraid to see
What would happen if we crossed that line.
What would happen if we crossed that line.*
