Reference Text: The King James Bible Original Red Line Printed Form

1. Romans Chapter 16 verses 1-12
2. Saint John Chapter 8 verse 47
3. First Epistle of John Chapter 4 verse 6

Good Day:

We the people are inhabitants upon the Earth were called by God through His Son Jesus Christ to live a holy and sanctified life through Jesus Christ. These words are recorded in the King James Bible Original Red Line Printed Form in the books of First Corinthians Chapter 12, Saint John Chapter 10 and Saint John Chapter 1 written by the Apostle John.

We are facing adversity from day to day because of the adversary (satan and his demon supporters) as well as members of mankind that have decided to line up with the regiment of the evil one. This adversary (satan) have deceived a many people upon the earth from the beginning of the first generation of mankind until the end of time as we know it. We know these words to be self-evidence of the truth through faith and experience as recorded in the King James Original Red Line Printed Form of the Bible from Genesis through Revelations. We know secondarily these words are true as we experience good and evil on all levels of our society in which we live from day to day

We the children of God are the true saints of God overcome or prevail against these evil forces by abiding in Jesus Christ the true and living Son of God and lead by the Holy Ghost (Saint John Chapter 14). To get success, peace, happiness, joy and the fruits of God as recorded in Galatians Chapter 5 certainly it is incumbent to set up a holy commitment in studying, reading and actual living all holy scriptures of the Bible from Genesis through Revelations. The Word of God changes not and cannot fail because He is eternity created all things except evil and darkness.

In your work in the government as a leader, you face diversity from time to time because you are required to meet or negotiate with other leaders and countries worldwide and the elite citizens living in your own country. You were appointed or elected to lead the country or government in which you reside as President of this country. Because of your experience and trustworthiness, a many inhabitants upon the earth depends on your everyday actions and/or decisions. Adversely, everyone upon the earth are affected by these actions that are decisions whether good or bad derived by you and other leaders of the government.

Our Heavenly Father God allowed certain women to be appointed as Queens or Kings upon the earth over a specified period of time as referenced in the King James Red Line Printed Form of the Bible from the books of Genesis through Revelations. Contrarily, evil forces have momentarily gained control of a government or entity of a government and have decided to do things perpetuating the ways of the evil one (satan) and other inhabitants of the earth that do things or live according to the regiment of satan. This action is correctable over a particular period of time nevertheless, we the true saints of God must and will uphold goodness of God through Jesus Christ as recorded in Saint Matthew Chapter 6 verse 33 and Romans Chapter 10 verse 3. When we do what God asks us to do through Jesus Christ we get the maximize Blessings of God through Jesus Christ at His discretion.

We the true saints of God are counting on you in letting Jesus Christ and other good leaders of your government make and live according to the goodness and rightness of God being your pilot light. You are a rare leader of this government in which you serve in our day and time because the controlling forces of this planet have disallowed certain women to serve as President of a country. This obstacle or barrier will be corrected as mankind collectively understand the will of God and the good forces upon the earth. Some countries have already adopted civil right laws that give women every right and opportunity as that of a man.

We wish you success in your occupation as a leader and private life in the will of God through Jesus Christ and being lead by the Holy Ghost.
