RUCC is on Snapchat!

It is hard to believe that we are nearing the halfway mark of Lent.

Not just because the clock ticks too quickly at times, nor because of how hectic both our ministry and personal schedules all have been; but rather, because of the convergence of our Lenten Theme and events local, national and global.

It seems as though, repeatedly, mere moments after we've discussed what it means (and reaffirmed our commitment to be) a FEARLESSLY FAITHFUL people, another tragedy or anxiety-inducing situation immediately arises. But, fear not: this is to be expected. Living in this world means having to contend with its fallen nature, and that means that we will have to endure trauma and trial; tribulation and tearful circumstances. However, these too are occasions to embrace our "F" faith and find meaning, order, purpose amidst the seemingly insurmountable chaos. We are privileged with the power to pen different narratives than our woeful and angst-ridden culture seems trapped into repeating. We are called and empowered by The LORD to write an alternative story from the deathly tendencies of society.

Where some people feed off of (and are sadly are enslaved to) the cycle of negativity and terror, we are caught-up in GOD's hope-filled cycle of confession, repentance and restoration. Even when things look pretty scary, we know that they are not insurmountably so.

Yes: even though our Savior was betrayed, arrested, cruelly humiliated, punished, and, ultimately, unjustly executed. However, that wasn't the end of the story, was it?

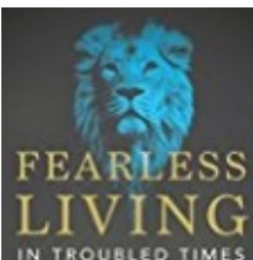

No. We serve a King of an upside-down kingdom—one where humility, self-sacrifice, and service actually serve our self-interest (meaning: they preserve our souls, honor Christ, bless others and bring about GOD's Realm and Reign).

In the oft-remembered words of Rev. Fred Rogers (aka: "Mr. Rogers"), "When I was a boy and I would see scary things in the news, my mother would say to me, 'Look for the helpers. You will always find people who are helping.'"

And to this, I would add: "If you don't see any helpers, be one."

So, as we make our way through the second half of Lent and approach The Resurrection, let's all strive to model Jesus to others—keeping our heads (and hearts) even when everyone else seems to be losing theirs all around us.

THAT'S Fearless Faith and faithfully following in the footsteps of our Friend/Brother/Savior/Lord!

All Peace, Love & Blessings;
Your brother & servant in Christ-Jesus,

-W-

Coming Soon...

After a great deal of prayer and discussion, we now on the verge of launching our
!!!NEW/ADDITIONAL WORSHIP SERVICE!!!

This casual, family-friendly service will be held (at least initially) once a month on a Sunday evening.

UPCOMING DATES:

Planning Session—Sunday, March 4th, following morning worship.

Test/Preview Worship— TBA (either Saturday, March 25th or March 31st).

PLEASE SUPPORT THIS NEW INITIATIVE with your prayers, input, resources, talents and attendance.

Our 2018 theme for Lent is “F7: FEARLESS FAITH (Fearlessly Facing-our-failings and Forging Forward in Faith toward Final Fulfillment)”.

For our Lenten prayer and study disciplines, we will have available the devotional booklet “LIVING THE GOSPEL LIFE: THE SEASON OF LENT”. The daily devotions in this booklet highlight the concepts of being sent, demonstrating faith in action, and being mission-minded each day of Lent. Suggested activities are associated with preparing our hearts, souls and minds to reflect on the suffering, death and resurrection of Christ and his mission for us.

For our teens we will have available “THE ACT OF LENT”. This booklet of Lenten devotions for teens and young adults first puts attention on the loving action God took to claim us as his own and then on our active response to God’s saving grace. Daily action-themed Scripture and activity prompts accompany each reflection.

Lastly, for our children we will have “JESUS LOVES ME!”. These 47 devotions for children ages 6-12 and their families each highlight the saving love and daily guidance we receive from our Good Shepherd, Jesus, who lovingly leads us throughout our lives past the cross and toward the promise of life everlasting. The 23rd Psalm and other biblical shepherd stories help children learn of Jesus’ ever-present love.

Printed copies of all these devotionals are available outside the sanctuary doors. [Digital copies of these devotionals are also available for you to purchase (for your Kindle and/or Nook). Look for a printed copy of the links in the Welcome Center!]

A MESSAGE FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF YOUTH AND FAMILY MINISTRIES

Greetings Beloved Church,

I don’t know about you, but it seems like each month goes faster and faster with each newsletter, or, it may just be my age! 😊 Nevertheless, all I know is that March is closer to Spring!

To start out, I am attending a boundary training workshop in Cuyahoga Falls pertaining to safe church issues/policies, counseling/support of children, youth & adults. I have invited members of CE to join me on Saturday, March 3rd from 8:30 am to 1:30 pm at Pilgrim UCC. I’m sure in the day and age we live today, this workshop for our Educators will be worth attending!

Beginning on March 18th, we will begin having a “Youth Service Sunday”. CE committee has voted to begin involving our youth to participate in our worship service once a month. We felt it necessary that our next generation (our youth) will be “the Church” and should experience worship together with their families and fellow parishioners while under adult supervision. On this same Sunday, we will also be promoting the 2018 “Camp Sunday”. On this Sunday, we encourage you to wear your camp shirts to this worship service and pick up a camp packet of information at the Welcome Center, or we can guide you online to get this information. Early bird/discount deadline is April 15th. So, start watching for the “camping theme” décor in the sanctuary and narthex area.

Last, but certainly not least, is our Community Easter Egg Hunt coming Sunday afternoon, March 25th. Beckie Custer is our Director again this year. She is busy gathering volunteers and people to help prepare for this big event. Please contact the church office at 330-832-1891 if you would like to volunteer filling eggs, or help provide a donation to help with this event, etc. We will make sure that Beckie gets your contact information & interest in helping!

In Christ’s love and Service,

Gary Bickel

Director of Youth & Family Ministries
