A Limb Has Fallen

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."

Remember the best times the laughter, the song.

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine though.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes, we're together again.

Obituary

“Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.”
Proverbs 31:10, 31

Annie Lee Benjamin Scriven, born October 15, 1948, in Bishopville, South Carolina, to the late James (JB) Benjamin and Rosa Lee Powell, peacefully passed away on September 14, 2024, at Hospice of Davidson County. She was preceded in death by her devoted husband, Bobby Lee Scriven.

Annie was a proud alumna of Carver High School. She dedicated her professional life to Salem Academy and College and later worked at VF Jeanswear until its closure. Throughout her life, Annie was a steadfast member of First Waughtown Baptist Church, where her faith and kindness touched many lives.

Annie was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Bobby Lee Scriven, her daughter Natasha Scriven Crowder, and her sister Mary Lee Wilson.

She is lovingly remembered by her three children: Calvin Jerome Scriven, Bobby Lee Scriven (April Litton), and Chanda Scriven (Milas) Sturdivant. Her legacy also lives on through her 13 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren. Annie is survived by her siblings Betty Benjamin, Jamesia Harrigan, Julie Cater, Dorothy Epps (Bro), Pamela Goldsboro, Edward Wilson, Hubert Smith, and Wayne Goldsboro, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives. She also leaves behind special friends Tasha Spann and Sharon William Brooks, who held a special place in her heart.

Annie’s warmth, love, and faith will be deeply missed but forever cherished by all who knew her.
